Supervisors Split County Data Bureau

First Step —Follows Jury Report

By FRANK FARRARA

Control of Marin County's data processing bureau was split today between the county administrator and auditor-controller, as possible first step toward placing it entirely under the administrator.

The interim arrangement was voted by the board of supervisors after receiving a 36-page report from the county grand jury's county offices committee which urged that data processing be taken away from the auditor's office.

Administrator Alan Bruce and Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said they concurred in the arrangement voted by the supervisors.

Under it, John Gibb, now assistant director of the bureau, will become senior administrative analyst on Jan. 1. Instead of working under Mitchell, he will be placed under Bruce.

Gibb will serve as the county administrator's assistant on data processing matters. But day-to-day control of the bureau will remain with Mitchell.

That isn't what the grand jury committee urged. Clifford S. Lund, its chairman, appeared before the supervisors with 11 other members of the grand jury to urge that the bureau be removed entirely from Mitchell's control.

The supervisors voted to go more thoroughly into the problem at 10:30 a.m. on Jan. 19.

The Grand Jury committee also recommended that a data processing review commission be formed to evaluate performance, make recommendations and act as technical advisers.

"The present organization of the data processing bureau tends to restrict the scope of our data processing benefits since it is primarily responsible to a department concerned with only one aspect of government," the report said.

"It is not kown whether data

GRAND JURY REPORT

Personnel Files In Wrong Place

The Marin County Personnel Department is "operating virtually without personnel records," the County Offices Committee of the Marin County Grand Jury reported today.

"Master personnel records, if they might be called this, are maintained by the auditor-controller in his payroll division," the committee said in its annual report submitted to the board of supervisors.

The committee recommended that the county administrator "immediately direct and assist" the personnel director in transferring all personnel folders to the personnel department.

"This committee found that personnel records are maintained by most departments as they see fit," the report said.

The committee also noted that the "so-called personnel folders kept in the auditor-controller's office are not kept in locked files "which is contrary to good management practice."

The auditor-controller "must have a complete payroll record of his own design to fullfil his responsibility," the committee

AIRING AT DAWN SET FOR ANNEX

Rehearing Due At 7 A.M. Saturday

An unprecedented "early bird" meeting at 7 a.m. Saturday will be the next hearing on the City of Mill Valley's hopes to annex 137 acres of tidelands and the Alto strip.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Committee set the hour last night, after heeding Mill Valley officials' forceful protest that they could not attend last night's rehearing because of a conflicting city council meeting.

The hearing "de novo" had been scheduled for last night because commission member Byron W. Lydecker did not attend the regularly scheduled hearing Dec. 14, and the four members present deadlocked 2-2 on the annexation issue. Following the tie vote, the agency members started to adjourn, then changed their minds and set the hearing for last night.

That resulted in a long letter from Mill Valley City Atty. Leland H. Jordan, which was read last night.

Jordan argued that Mill Valley officials were not consulted about the rehearing date, and that holding it when the council meeting would prevent attenance by "anyone who could make an adequate presentation of the city's case" would place the city in "double jeopardy."

Mill Valley Urges Boosters' Turnout

Mill Valleyans were urged by their mayor last night to get up early Saturday to help fight what one city official called "the courthouse gang."

The Mill Valley City Council was in session when City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer reported by phone that the Local Agency Formation Commission had reset its rehearing on Mill Valley's proposed 137-acre annexation for 7 a.m. Saturday. Balmer attended the scheduled rehearing last night at the Marin County Civic Center as the city's sole representative.

Amid complaints at the hour scheduled for the hearing, Mayor Michael Wornum urged that Mill Valley citizens and their friends attend anyhow. "I would like some support," said the mayor.

"I'm becoming tired of the courthouse gang and the San Rafael element and the developers being able to exert as much influence as they do on the county commissions and county board of supervisors," declared Rodric L. Robinson, a Mill Valley planning commissioner. "Southern Marin County, in my opinion, has lost its voice."

Manny Gomez, Mill Valley property owner who regularly attends council meetings, said the Local Agency Formation

Civic Center Bond Vote Seems Likely

A $7,750,000 bond issue to complete the Marin County Civic Center was virtually assured today for next June 8.

Four county supervisors expressed themselves as favoring the election, with the June date proposed by County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker moved the county counsel be directed to prepare the ballot proposal. Supervisor William D. Fusselman, attending his final meeting in 22 years of service on the board, quickly seconded the motion.

Fusselman has long contended that financing the Civic Center should be put up to the electorate.

Thousands Flee Coast Floods; Trees, Wires Fall In Marin

Peril May Be Worse Than '55

COMBINED UPI & AP

Thousands of persons abandoned their homes to raging floodwaters today as streams and rivers broke out of their banks in Oregon and northern California during tremendous pre-Christmas rains.

Two deaths were attributed to the floods, and residents of dozens of towns left their homes to the mercy of the rampaging rivers.

Flood waters surged over a levee on the Eel River near Fortuna (Humboldt County) threatening to force evacuation of the town's 3,500 residents.

COULD BE WORST

Gov. Edmund G. Brown was told that the rainfall is creating "potentially" one of the worst floods of all times, and more is due.

The flooding was the worst since the Christmas, 1955, disaster when rivers poured out of their banks killing 76 persons and causing 225 million dollars damage.

Farther south the Russian River was rising six inches an hour at Guerneville (Sonoma County). It was already six feet above flood stage.

California towns evacuated included Klamath, Weott, Phillipsville, Holmes, Myers Flat, Orick, Rio Dell, Pepperwood, Shively and Miranda.

The Red Cross and civil defense set up emergency centers to care for refugees from the floods. National Guardsmen were activated and sent on armed patrols in evacuated communities to prevent looting.

A bridge was washed out by the Smith River near Crescent City, this morning, closing a main east-west route, Highway 199.

EUREKA TOLL

Eureka was completely blocked off to surface travel by flooding and earth slides on all routes north, south and east.

In Oregon a mudslide derailed the Union Pacific's Portland Rose passenger train at Hood River. There were no injuries.

The main rail route between Seattle and San Francisco was also cut when a slide hit a freight train east of Eugene, Ore. Southern Pacific Railroad in San Francisco said it was cancelling passenger trains today and tomorrow, interfering with holiday travel plans for hundreds of persons.

Gales whipped the Columbia River into waves which pounded Astoria, Ore., washing out two 60-foot sections of railroad tracks, collapsing two docks, sinking one barge and capsizing another.

In Oregon some residents were forced out of their homes in the Johnson Creek area south of Portland. There were evacuations also at Shady Dell, Lebanon, Turner, Philomath, Grants Pass and Roseburg.

Gary L. Fisk, 12, was electrocuted when he touched a lamp in his Coos Bay home, flooded

5.74 Inches In Ross; Winds Hit 70-MPH

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

Wet and windy weather continued unabated in Marin today, the official first day of winter. The toll of power failures, fallen trees and flooded basements mounted.

The Weather Bureau offered little hope of relief, saying still another storm is due to hit tomorrow.

The storm brought 5.74 inches of rain to Ross between 8 a.m. yesterday and the same time today, while Woodacre reported 4.06 inches in the same period. Other areas had from .8 to 3.81 inches.

San Rafael had 3.2 inches of rain from noon yesterday to noon today.

Most extensive power failure cut electrical service to 2,750 customers in the Las Gallinas Valley at 7:45 p.m. yesterday, according to Leonard O. Robertson, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. electrical superintendent.

Robertson said the interruption came when a transformer failed at the company's Las Gallinas substation.

By re-routing circuits, linemen restored service to 350 users in Lucas Valley by 8:24 p.m., to another 1,800 users in Terra Linda by 8:48 p.m., and to 600 customers in Rafael Meadows, Los Ranchitos and Terra Linda by 8:58 p.m.

Nineteen men worked until 5:10 a.m. today to install a mobile transformer unit at the substation, Robertson said.

Worst interruption of telephone service came when a huge tree fell on a 600-pair cable and a power line on Sausalito's Girard Avenue between Pine and Turney streets, at 12:30 p.m. yesterday.

The broken cable left 125 telephones dead until it was repaired at 6 p.m., according to Gordon C. Davenport, manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s San Rafael office.

Power, meanwhile, was knocked out for 155 PG&E users in Marin City, Marinship and Tamalpais Valley until 2:20 p.m., according to Robertson. The same area was again blacked out from 7:20 to 8:30 p.m. when a wire fell in the Marin City public housing development.

A third power failure affected 130 customers along Panoramic Highway above Mill Valley from 8:45 to 11:30 p.m. yesterday after a tree fell on a wire on Washington Park Avenue on the side of Mount Tamalpais. Robertson said there were several smaller interruptions at other spots in the county.

Davenport said a total of 700 telephones were affected at one time or another from the storm's start until this morning. Most of the problems were caused by falling trees.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

Mary With Child; Fears Reaction From Joseph

By FULTON OURSLER

(Fifth in a series)

It was nearing sunset of the third day when Mary found herself in the tiny suburb of Ain Karim; and there was her cousin, six months big with child, sitting or the dooryard stoop.

Now Mary had come all the long distance to Elizabeth, not because she doubted the angel but because she believed in him.

"Hail, Mary!" cried Elizabeth happily. "Blessed are you among women!"

The dusty figure of Mary stopped short in the road. Those very words she had heard before —from the angel!

"And blessed is the fruit of your womb!"

With a sob of relief Mary flung herself into the arms of Elizabeth. Then, speaking very softly,

Big Education Battle Shaping Up

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Changes in sections of the state's basic education pattern may spark bitter debate during the 1965 legislative session.

Adding to the fire will be proposals by Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty and the Board of Education calling for vast changes in administrative and academic procedures.

Much of the dialogue will embrace a traditional conflict—How much freedom should local school boards retain in planning and developing school programs?

"We want a basic pattern of education that can be approved by all groups—from the governor's office to the California Teachers Association," said Rafferty in an interview.

He declared that some of the proposals his office plans to present to the upcoming session will be "highly controversial."

A revision of the teacher tenure law is needed, Rafferty said.

Under the law, which governs terminations of employment, a teacher may appeal a dismissal in superior court.

Rafferty's proposal would "professionalize" the structure of the law to allow a board of teachers and school administrators at the district level to pass judgement.

Rafferty said he will also press for:

1. A system of merit raises, yet to be worked out, which could act as a "great moral force" within the teaching profession.

2. A single, uniform testing system to measure a student's academic capacity. At present, the law requires a minimum of two tests to be used by the state, and at least six testing procedures have been used by various school districts.

3. More money for the gifted children program. The state now supplies $40 per pupil; Rafferty wants $100 per gifted student.

Rafferty added he would continue to press for a constitutional amendment permitting local school districts to manage the printing of textbooks, thus removing state control.

William A. Norris, chairman of the Board of Education's Committee on Legislative Program, has said many of the board's proposals "are directed at providing greater freedom to local boards in the planning and development of curriculum."

Experimentation is one of the key ideas in the board's program.

The board will ask the legislature to grant it authority to exempt school districts from absolute compliance with the state's coursework and textbook requirements. A spokesman for the board said this would encourage new programs, for example in reading, which might set standards for other districts.

A streamlining of the education Code will be proposed. It would eliminate such sections as "Morals, Manners and Citizenship," rearrange academic requirements in a more logical sequence and knock out those sections which overlap.

A potentially explosive proposal by the board would eliminate the state's daily physical education requirement for junior and senior high schools. The plan calls for a "statement of intent" from local school boards which would outline their physical education program-hopefully stressing vigorous exercise.

Concerning finance, the board will ask for the abolishment of basic aid in favor of state epualization aid for school districts. At present, each district receives $125 in state and local aid per pupil, but board plans would wipe this out in an attempt to equalize aid to poorer districts.

Legislators also will be asked to authorize the state board as a central buying agent for locally phurchased textbooks and to arrange for textbook production in the State Printing Office. The board maintains this proposal would effect 17 million dollars in annual savings spent each year for locally adopted textbooks and would not interfere with the book selection process.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Boycott Set

JAKTRATA, Indonesia (UPI) — The Communist organ Harian Rakjat said today West Java's communications unions will boycott Americans' beginning Jan. 1. The paper said Americans will get no postal, telegraph or telephone service unless the United States ceases its "hostility against Indonesia."

Pilot Captured

TOKYO (UPI) — Red China reported today that the pilot of a Chinese Nationalist reconnaissance plane shot down last week has been captured by coastal fishermen. A Peking broadcast identified the prisoner as Maj. Hsieh Hsiang-ho.

No Decision

ROME (UPI) — Strongman and ex-premier Amintore Fanfani withdrew today from Italy's tangled presidential election after a vain attempt to displace Giovanni Leone as the official candidate of the Christian Democratic Party. Parliament convened for the seventh day in an attempt to select a successor to President Antonio Segni, who resigned due to illness.

Snowball Charge

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea charged today that U.S. soldiers guarding the demilitarized zone have been tossing snowballs at the Communists. The Communists also accused the Americans of "making vile gestures."

Miner Dies

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Three of four men survived a cave-in at a coal mine. The fourth, buried under some 60 to 70 tons of coal more than 300 feet underground, was declared dead. But workers continued to dig for the body of Lawrence Malachefski, 37.

Bridge Leaper Is Critical

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. Isabelle Kainoa, 30-year-old Oakland housewife and mother of four, faced a joyless Christmas.

Again she would be separated from her youngsters on Christmas day.

And there was the chance this year she might be pregnant with a fifth child. She feared pregnancy again would reactivate her arrested leprosy.

Early yesterday morning she slipped out of the house while her husband slept, got into the family car, and joined the commuter traffic to San Francisco.

Mid-way across the Bay Bridge she stopped, got out of the car, climbed the railing, and plunged 232 feet into the chill, storm-whipped San Francisco bay.

Six minutes later a Coast Guard boat on patrol near the bridge plucked her alive from the water.

At a San Francisco hospital doctors operated to repair a severe pelvic laceration and a broken pelvis.

Late last night she was still in critical condition.

Scant Clues In Robbery

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — Two jackets, a pair of pants and a ski cap provided scant clues today in the search for three gunmen who escaped yesterday with more than a half million dollars in cash.

Police said they had no description of the men —except that they were white and, in the words of a witness "appeared to be past their youth."

The clothing, identified by the victims, was found lying on a road on the outskirts of this city 10 miles west of New York City.

The men, wearing Halloween masks, took over a church rectory during a church service, held four priests and a janitor at gunpoint, ambushed two bank messengers, as they entered the rectory, and escaped with $511,000 in cash from the bank truck and $1,700 in church funds.

Dentist's Widow Denied Bail

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A judge has denied bail to Mrs. Lucille Miller, expectant mother who is awaiting trial on a charge of murdering her dentist husband.

Defense attorney Edward P. Foley petitioned the court yesterday for Mrs. Miller's release in view of her pregnancy.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Don A. Turner replied:

"The fact that Mrs. Miller is pregnant does not make her any less a murderer."

Foley contended Mrs. Miller and her three children "belong together for Christmas." Replied Turner:

"These children had a right to be with their father for Christmas, too, but this right was denied them by their mother."

Mrs. Miller is due in court Jan. 11.

Murder Charge

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Police planned to press murder charges today against a 22-year-old man who admitted that he bludgeoned his landlord to death with an auto gear. William M. Butler, who said he also robbed 92-year-old Willard B. Scott of $60, had claimed earlier that he had "fingered" his landlord for robbery for a "man from Chicago" who Butler said must have committed the murder.

Civil Rights Plan Pledged By Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, who will coordinate federal civil rights efforts after he becomes vice president next month, says he hopes to know within 10 days whether the job will require creation of a new supervisory agency.

ASSURES ACTION

Humphrey said in an interview that he is conducting "a very detailed study" of existing federal programs in an effort to see how best to "assure prompt and direct action to those whose civil rights have been denied."

He meets today with Justice Department officials who have played a key role during the past few years in government efforts to bar discrimination in such areas as education and voting.

Humphrey said he met Monday with Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, and earlier with officials of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and a number of sub-Cabinet officials.

LINK TO POVERTY

Shriver's office, which seeks to implement what President Lyndon B. Johnson has called a "war on poverty," is closely related to civil rights, Humphrey said, because "the elimination of poverty will help greatly in relieving the social tensions that cause civil rights problems."

Since President Johnson designated him Dec. 10 to coordinate all administration programs in the civil rights field, Humphrey has been working mainly with his own staff in reviewing existing programs.

Humphrey said he expects to report to President Johnson on his study by Jan. 1.

The agencies that he will coordinate include the Justice Department's civil rights division; the Civil Rights Commission; the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity in Employment and Housing; the Community Relations Service in the Commerce Department! and the soon-to-be created Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Besides coordinating federal agencies, Humphrey said he would work with state and local officials.

Army Tells Men S. Vietnam Struggle Part Of History

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is telling its 970,000 men around the world that "in terms of the issues at stake, the war in Vietnam is as critically important as any in history."

This statement is contained in a publication entitled "Our Mission in Vietnam." Army officials said the 12-page publication is being distributed to Army men everywhere.

The Army is carrying a large part of the load in South Vietnam. About 65 per cent of the 21,600 American military men there are wearing Army uniforms.

Most of the U.S. casualties have been sustained by Army men—171 of the 237 combat dead and more than 1,270 of the 1,400-plus wounded.

"Experience has shown that there is simply no other way to teach the techniques of effective combat to any army at war," the publication said in seeking to explain why American soldiers accompany Vietnamese formations in fighting operations.

The pamphlet, illustrated with a map and action photographs, traces the origin of the present crisis in South Vietnam: Communists setting out to gobble up the country and the United States coming into the picture when South Vietnam asked for help.

In answering the question: "Why are we in Vietnam?" the troop information publication attempts to project the significance of the Vietnamese struggle beyond its present dimensions.

"South Vietnam has clearly become a major testing ground for a comparatively new Communist strategy," the publication says.

This strategy was described as cloaking subversion in the guise of "wars of liberation," which is the way that the Communists portray the war in South Vietnam.

"If the Communist strategy of subversion and guerrilla insurgency were allowed to succeed in Vietnam," the Army said, "communism would be encouraged to exert similar efforts in other countries of Southeast Asia and eventually in other parts of the world.

By its "unflinching support" of South Vietnam, the Army tells its troops, the United States is demonstrating "that we do not intend to stand aside and let freedom die in Southeast Asia or anywhere else."

Pope Calls For End To Racism, Nationalism, Poverty, Inequality

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, in a stirring Christmas Message to the world, tonight called for an end to racism, nationalism, poverty and social inequality among all mankind.

In what he called "our program," the Roman Catholic pontiff offered the services of the Roman Catholic Church "to sustain the efforts of men of goodwill to promote the common good, to bring about universal peace, and the brotherhood of all men."

The Christmas Message, the second in Pope Paul's 18-month-old reign, was recorded for television and radio broadcast by the Vatican Radio and networks throughout Europe and elsewhere.

He renewed in his speech the appeal for disarmament he made after seeing the poverty of a Bombay slum earlier this month.

In that appeal he urged the world leaders to stop the arms race and devote part of the funds saved for a fight on poverty.

Pope Paul's speech was a call for harmony among men based on a greatly broadened democracy. He said:

"Democracy, to which all mankind today appeals, must take on a more universal aspect, which will transcend all the obstacles that stand in the way of the effective brotherhood of all men."

He referred to "the obstacles which continue to stand in the way of human brotherhood," and outlined them in this manner:

1. "Nationalism . . . Divides peoples, putting them in opposition to one another . . . this enemy of human brotherhood is today gaining strength . . . we appeal to governments and peoples to be watchful and to moderate this facile instinct of prestige and rivalry. For it can once again prove fatal."

2. Racism . . . separates and opposes the different branches constituting the great human family, resulting in pride, mistrust, exclusivism, discrimination and sometimes even oppression."

3. Militarism: "We cannot help being alarmed at a militarism no longer focussed on the legitimate defense of the countries concerned or on the maintenance of world peace, but tending rather to build up stockpiles of weapons . . . a process which . . . induces men to make mutual fear the treacherous and inhuman basis of world peace."

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

she uttered the words of her Magnificat.

"My soul doth magnify the Lord; and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. Because He hath regarded the humility of His handmaid; for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. Because He that is mighty hath done great things to me; and holy is His name. And His mercy is from generation into generations, to them that fear Him."

As at last Elizabeth led her into the house, she whispered:

"Do you realize that you are pregnant already?"

Mary's eyes entreated her.

"I have not known a man." She trembled.

"Of course, beloved!"

For the first time tears rolled down Mary's cheeks.

"You believe me. You know," she quavered. "But how can anyone else ever believe me? Will not Joseph be sure to think . . ."

"What would any man think in his place?" asked Elizabeth. "But God, Who has shown us these things, will surely show us how to talk with Joseph."

The kindness with which she was received on her arrival never once wavered in the months that followed.

She remained in Ain Karim until the great day when, as the angel had predicted, a man-child was born to Elizabeth. And, true even to the last prophetic accent of the angel, Zachary immediately found his voice again!

Suddenly Samuel, the trader, returned from Jerusalem and called on Joseph.

"Look here, Joseph. I am with a caravan that rests in Nazareth tonight. Come down with me this evening to the camp fire. Let's have supper together. And sing a few songs for old time's sake."

Sunset found Joseph at the camp with his friend by a small fire of dried twigs. They ate and listened to the roistering voices of the minstrels, who sang ot Dionysos, god of wine and the drama. Pagan songs, yarns, about the gods of Rome and how they mated with mortal women, breeding half-gods who always stirred up a lot of trouble in the world.

"Now you're hearing something," gloated Samuel. "Not those sickening old psalms. Did you hear that song of the god and the woman?"

"Yes. But their gods are not real. The singers themselves laugh at them."

"Of course, Joseph. And does that not have a personal meaning for you? Didn't you tell me a year ago that you would not fight for the freedom of the people because God promised to send a deliverer, wasn't that it?"

"Right."

"Who was to be God's own son, and born of a virgin? Am I not now quoting the prophecies?"

"Yes, Samuel."

"Can't you see, Joseph, that it is all just an old wives' tale—told in every language? Every silly religion teaches the same thing. They all have the same story of gods having children by mortal women. You are making your decision on a fairy tale. You are believing in a universal nonsense."

Joseph leaned forward, and now the light was on his face.

"In universal truth," he replied with the same tranquil conviction that always annoyed Samuel with its force. "Even though some people worship these false gods, and believe in myths, the Messiah will not come just for our people, but for all—for everybody!"

And then before they could speak more a hand was thrust from the darkness behind him and tapped the carpenter on the shoulder. Startled, he turned swiftly, looking up into the face of Joachim.

"Peace be with you," the young man breathed, aware of sudden fear.

"And the Lord be with you, Joseph. I came to ask you to come to your shop. Mary is there. She says she wants to talk with you at once. Alone."

VIETNAM

nists "and each of us must still suffer many sacrifices and trials."

"But we make sacrifices for the country's independence and he Vietnamese people's liberty, but not to carry out the policy of any foreign country," Khanh said.

The United States has expressed displeasure at the act of the clique of young generals who dissolved the council, South Vietnam's provisional legislature, last Sunday. American diplomats were said to have warned that U.S. aid might be withheld unless the council was restored.

But Khanh denounced the council. He said "This institution set up amidst the hopes of all the people and the armed forces was exploited by counter revolutionary elements who placed partisan considerations above the homeland's sacred interests."

"More than that, some of them were engaged in inciting the people, arousing revolt while our comrades-in-arms are shedding their blood on the front," Khanh said.

It was an obvious reference to Buddhist opposition to the government of Premier Tran Van Huong. Huong retained his post in the partial coup.

Khanh said the action of the armed forces council, comprised of the young generals, "is proof of the armed forces good faith."

In another development here today, Laotian rightwing Deputy Premier Gen. Phoumi Nosavan arrived for a three-day "private visit" which could lead to combined Laotian-Vietnamese operations against supply bases of the Communists.

Phoumi declined to discuss anything with newsmen except to say that he was happy to be here.

X-15 Travels Five Times Sonic Speed

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — Air Force Maj. Robert Rushworth flew the rocket ship X-15 to more than five times the speed of sound today in an eight minute flight over this desert test base.

It was the 124th flight in the X-15 research program. The National Space Agency immediately scheduled another maneuver for tomorrow.

60 Inmates Helping In Evacuations

Sixty inmates of San Quentin Prison's conservation camps near Weott, Humboldt County, are helping to evacuate residents of Weott, Pepperwood and Meyers Flat on the flooding Eel River, James W. Park, associate warden, reported today.

The inmate-crews, under direction of State Division of Forestry foremen, are moving people and personal belongings to higher ground, he said.

Thirty conservation camp inmates are helping with evacuation of residents of Klamath, Del Norte County, where the Klamath River is flooding.

Evacuation crews from Black Mountain conservation camp near Gurneville, Sonoma County, are standing by in case the Russian River overflows its banks.

ANNEX

Balmer was on hand for last night's session, but all other city officials were at the council meeting.

With Leydecker and commission chairman County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel leading the discussion, the commission agreed that Mill Valley should be afforded a hearing, decided against letting the 40-plus "anti" audience members last night have their say with Mill Valley absent, and debated for an hour as to exactly when the hearing should be held.

Most commission members stressed conflicting schedules and the problem with Christmas holidays.

After Balmer telephoned his city council, and reported they were agreeable to an early meeting Saturday, the commission voted to set the hearing for 7 a.m., and to limit arguments and rebuttals to close the hearing by 10 a.m.

Leydecker, is urging that a time be found for the hearing, was critical of factions that he said claimed he was sure to vote against the annexation.

"I vote dagainst this thing last time (in May, when a larger area was involved) and everybody in Mill Valley thinks I'm going to vote against it this time. I don't know—I haven't heard the evidence. Everybody in Mill Valley seems to have an inside track on how I'm going to vote," he complained.

Two Counterfeit $20s Turn Up In Corte Madera

Two counterfeit $20 bills were discovered yesterday among night deposits at Crocker-Citizens National Bank in Corte Madera. At least one of the bills had been passed during the weekend at the J. C. Penny Co. store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

The bills have been turned over to the U. S. Secret Service by Corte Madera Police Inspector Harold N. Hockett. He said one bill, printed on a bleached $1 bill, was an extremely good job. He said he would not have been able to tell any flaws without a microscope.

Hockett said the bill from Penney's was of poorer quality, being printed on cheaper paper and then dipped in coffee to make it look aged. That bill was a federal reserve note from the New York Federal Reserve Bank 1950C series.

The better bill was also a federal reserve note, but from the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank, series 1950C.

Johnson Trimming Pentagon's Budget

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson went over the Defense Department budget today with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

McNamara and the military leaders of the Pentagon flew to the LBJ Ranch from Washington for final decisions on who gets how much in the fiscal year starting next July 1.

FREE PARKING AS GIFT? IT'S NICE IDEA, BUT . . .

It was a nice thought, but . . .

"We have given to the parking meters all year. How nice it would be to receive!" Mrs. Gladys M. Bernard of 13 Alta Vista Avenue wrote to the Mill Valley City Council.

Mrs. Bernard proposed that as a Christmas gesture, the parking meters be covered today and a small Christmas tree tied to each "to express the appreciation of the city for the fact the other days of the year the citizens are feeding the meters."

Mrs. Bernard's letter was read to the city council last night.

"It's a nice thought," said Mayor Michael Wornum, but he noted parking meters are most needed during heavy Christmas shopping traffic.

"The 26th would be an appropriate day," suggested Councilman Albert E. White.

Then, after a few jests, the council went on to other matters.

There'll be no free parking as a city Christmas gift.

Brown Sees Merit In Farm Labor Program

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today said "in general" he approved of new federal rules aimed at replacing Mexican braceros with domestic farm laborers.

But he had at least two objections: His proposal for a five-year bracero phaseout program was better, and separate minimum wage rates proposed for Arizona and California by the federal government were "discriminatory."

Brown, at his weekly news conference, said despite these objections, the state was working hard to develop a domestic labor force to handle the first harvest to be affected by the expiration of the bracero program Dec. 31. That harvest will be in the Imperial Valley next month.

Brown said he trusted labor and agriculture would work as hard as state government.

The governor said he planned to talk with U. S. Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz to see if minimum farm wage rates could be the same for both Arizona and California.

Under the new rules, the rates vary from state to state. California must offer $1.25 an hour as of Jan. 1 and $1.40 as of March 1.

Brown also discussed these subjects:

PARKS — He hasn't decided who to appoint as director of the State Parks and Recreation Department, following the resignation of Charles DeTurk, who will take over his old job as chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks. The governor said he would "like to get somebody from California" but also "would like to get a hard, tough administrator." DeTurk stepped down last week after reports the state parks commission was dissatisfied with his administrative abilities. Brown confirmed the park commission had talked with him but he said the members were not agreed on the subject.

FREEWAYS—He praised the State Highway Commisison as being "very deliberate," desipite outside criticisms of the group. He reiterated a freeway would never be built through the controversial northcoast redwoods. And he said San Francisco eventually would have to agree on a freeway program or "it's going to be smothered by cars."

ECONOMY — He said retail sales were 10 per cent higher during the third quarter of 1964 than for the same period in 1963, and taxable sales were up 9 per cent. He said these figures "negate the words of people who look at the doom all the time."

PRESTON — Annonnced he would eat a Christmas Eve lunch with youths at the Preston School of Industry.

REGAN — Announced he probably would decide today whether to call a special election to replace State Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Weaverville). Brown also said he probably would call the election. Regan will leave the Senate Dec. 31 to become a Justice of the Third District Court of Appeal. He was appointed to the post by Brown.

GANG

Commission "missed the point." The proposed annexation, he said, could eliminate some special districts that "are little kingdoms of their own . . . The commission is strictly political."

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks noted that one member of the Local Agency Formation Commission is an elected official: County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel.

"I trust the citizens will make it plain as to how they feel the next time they vote," said Sheeks.

Brommel was one of two commission members who voted against the annexation to provide a 2-to-2 deadlock at the first hearing.

Another elected member, County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, was absent at that hearing. He was present last night, when the commission decided to postpone the rehearing to Saturday to give Mill Valley councilmen an opportunity to attend.

The area proposed for annexation includes Tamalpais High School and a strip extending to Highway 101. The same area was part of a larger proposed annexation, totaling 242 acres, that was turned down by the Local Agency Formation Commission last summer.

Mother Awaits Word On Pilot

"Waiting for news of my son is the hardest thing in the world," Mrs. John V. Murphy, mother of missing Greenbrae pilot Paul V. Murphy, said today.

She has been jumping every time the telephone has rung in her Santa Clara home since she was told Murphy and his wife, Patricia, of 500 South Eliseo Drive, had disappeared Saturday in the single-engined plane they were flying from San Jose Airport to Las Vegas.

"The Civil Air Patrol has been hampered by the storm in its search for their red and white plane, but it is doing as much as is possible to find them," Mrs. Murphy said.

Novato Boy Hurt In Highway Crash

Seven-year-old James A. Richardson was injured slightly yesterday when a car driven by his father, James B. Richardson, 30, of 1863 Virginia Street, Novato, collided with one driven by Elaine D. Montecello, 22 of Rohnert Park, on Highway 101 about four miles north of Novato.

The California Highway Patrol reported Miss Montecello changed lanes suddenly and slowed in front of Richardson about 7:50 p.m. as both were northbound.

Jail Escaper Is Held To Answer

Louis Barton Pettijohn, 28, of 42 Bolinas Avenue, Fairfax, charged with escaping last June from a Marin County Jail work furlough program was held to answer today in Marin Superior Court.

Municipal Court Judge Leonard A. Thomas, also held Pettijohn to answer a charge of writing a $110 worthless check to buy a used car at Sweeney's Used Car Lot, 439 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

Pettijohn must appear in superior court on both charges Dec. 31.

When he escaped Pettijohn was serving a year's sentence for passing a worthless check.

Car Top Stolen

Theft of a $300 fiberglass car top was reported to San Rafael police at 7:14 p.m. yesterday by John Fisher of 1704 Lincoln Avenue, Apt. 12, who said the top was black with a white inner trim and chrome striping.

OBITUARIES

Annie B. Hediger Dies At 81

Mrs. Annie B. Hediger, 81, who lived in Marin County for 47 years, died yesterday in a local rest home after a long illness.

Mrs. Hediger, who lived at 328 D Street, was born in Switzerland and came to California 75 years ago. Her husband, Joseph, a painting estimator, died in 1943.

Surviving are a son, Henry J. Hediger, and a daughter, Mrs. Frances M. Brown, both of San Rafael; three sisters, Mrs. Helena Zuest of Los Altos, Mrs. Josephine Ambord of San Francisco and Mrs. Mary Boock of Palo Alto, and two grandchildren.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. at Harry M. Williams Mortuary. Inurnment will be private.

HELEN BOSCUS

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Helen Boscus of 4 Crescent Circle, Fairfax, who died at home Sunday after a short illness, will be held at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax.

A native of Chicago, she had lived in California for more than 60 years and in Fairfax for 50 years. She was the widow of Peter J. Boscus, owner of the Boscus Plumbing and Hardware Store on Broadway in Fairfax from 1914 to 1927.

Surviving are a son, Howard J. Boscus of Sacramento; a daughter, Mrs. Maylou Conroy of Fairfax; a brother, John Bauer of San Francisco, and two grandchildren.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

BOND

ture at the Civic Center is expected to cost about $11,280,000.

Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows said the courthouse could be sold and should bring $1,410,000. About $150,000 can be expected from federal-state sources for Health Department space. The 1964-65 budget appropriated $2,075,000, leaving $7,645,000 to be financed "from other sources."

Barrows said pay-as-you-go is no longer deemed feasible due to the high present county tax rate; lease-purchase would be too costly. This left a general obligation bond issue.

The action today included transfer of $25,000 to the election budget to finance an election.

Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchel gave figures indicating that for 25-year term the interest cost of bonds at 3¼ per cent would be $3,131,000, whereas lease purchase of 3.85 per cent would be $3,709,000, "a difference of $578,000" in favor of bonds.

Declaring that Marin's property tax rate "is becoming insupportable," Supervisor Peter H. Behr said both cities and counties of California ought to make it a No. 1 project to get more money from the state.

Behr said he would like to be certain that the two supervisors-elect "feel as strongly as we do, and that we do nothing that won't receive their full and open support."

Ernest N. Kettenhofen will replace Fusselman on the board next month, and Thomas T. Storer will replace George H. Ludy, who was absent today as he is vacationing in Mexico.

Leydecker said that the election campaigns showed full support of the Civic Center second stage, and added, "We are at a point where it is practically impossible to finance pay-as-you-go."

Administrator Bruce said that if the bond issue were teamed with approval of the projected capital improvement program, there would be reduction in the county tax rate of 4.7 cents over the next five years.

Broken Pipe Floods Office

Juvenile Officer Harvey Teague of the Marin County Sheriff's Office was flooded out of his office yesterday, but it was not due to rain.

A steam pipe broke sometime over the weekend, spraying the basement office in the courthouse with hot water. The break was discovered late Sunday when the telephone short-circuited due to moisture and began ringing on the office switchboard.

County maintenance crews mopped up yesterday but the office and records were still being dried today.

HARRIET BAILEY

Mrs. Harriet M. Bailey, 66, died at her daughter's home in San Rafael yesterday after a long illness.

Mrs. Bailey had been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Robert De Iongh, at 133 Lowell Avenue for the past month.

A retired telephone operator, Mrs. Bailey had lived in Alameda until a month ago. Her husband, Byron, is a real estate salesman there.

Besides her husband and daughter, Mrs. Bailey is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mae Howard of Hayward, three sisters, Mrs. Marie Jacobs of Alameda, Mrs. Margaret McGeorge of Hayward, and Mrs. Genevieve Seely of Oakland, a brother, Gilbert Manson of Long Beach, and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in the George W. Murphy Mortuary in Alameda.

Burial will be in Sunset View Cemetery, Alameda.

Underground Utility Hearing Set Jan. 4

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday set for Jan. 4 a hearing on a subdivision ordinance amendment that would require underground utilities for new subdivisions.

County supervisors ordered two weeks ago that the amendment be drawn up so that underground utilities will be required.

The commission also approved residential one-acre zoning for the unincorporated portion of the former Tamalpais Scenic Railroad right-of-way between Mill Valley and Marin Municipal Water District lands.

Mill Valley requested that the area be zoned as an open area if the land were publicly owned and one-acre residential if it were privately owned. There also were three letters, bearing nine signatures, in support of the city's stand.

There is a dispute to title so the planning staff recommended the one-acre zoning, planner Ross Talley reported. Marin Municipal Water District has easement rights granted by the railroad which makes it improbable there would be construction in the right-of-way, the staff reported.

Commissioners gave architectural approval to plans for a shopping center including a service station on 2.35 acres at the northeast corner of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Oak Manor Drive, adjacent to Fairfax, submitted by A. Von Rotz..

The City of Fairfax has objected to use permit for the gasoline service station at the site. There will be a hearing before county supervisors on the use permit Jan. 12.

Commissioners denied an application for a substandard lot at 475 Wilson Avenue in the West Novato area after receiving five letters of protest and six letters in support.

Marie Brindel asked for a 60-foot lot width instead of the required 75 feet, and Paul Brindel submitted six letters from adjoining property owner favoring the application.

The protestors said creation of the small lot would create a sanitation problem and an eyesore and would open the area to small lots.

The planning staff reported that "re-dividing" of Brindel land may constitute a violation of the subdivision ordinance.

"This is a classic example of the desirability of the necessity for a lot-split ordinance," planner Talley said.

The commission noted that the applicant had land available to make a legal lot.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

1. Set for Jan. 4 hearing on a resolution to amend the Marinwood Master Plan regulating densities for lands now designated as 10,000 square-foot residential lots.
2. Granted architectural supervision and a sign permit for an electrical repair and television sales and repair business at 310 Point Reyes-Inverness Road, Inverness Park, sought by George Stokely.
3. Approved a tentative map of Castlewood Unit 2, a six-acre subdivision of 22 lots, south of Novato Boulevard between Novato Gardens subdivision and Eucalyptus Street.
4. Granted architectural supervision for a seven-unit apartment building at 308 Auburn Street, south of San Rafael, under plans submitted by Edward Oliver.
5. Granted architectural supervision for a Sabbath school at the Temple Rodef Sholom, 170 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia.
6. Approved a revised tentative map of San Geronimo Valley Unit One, a proposed 19-acre subdivision along San Geronimo Valley Drive, east of Meadown Way, submitted by Lagunitas Development Co.
7. Continued until Feb. 1 hearing on amendments to the zoning ordinance which would create large lot controls, average density controls, and a commercial and/or tourist recreation zone.

Commissioner Edward K. Waschman was absent at the afternoon session, and Commissioner Felix M. Warburg was absent at the latter part of the morning session.

Utilities Ordinance Is Planned

San Rafael may soon require that all new subdivisions have either underground or "streamlined" utilities.

Mayor John F. McInnis, longtime advocate of underground utility lines, proposed this at last night's San Rafael City Council meeting.

City Atty. David Menary Jr. said he had already prepared an ordinance calling for such installations, which will be presented to the city planning commission at its Dec. 29 meeting.

Novato Planner Resigns Post

Richard C. Alcorn has submitted his resignation from the Novato Planning Commission, City Administrator J. Julien Baget said today.

Alcorn's resignation, dated Dec. 15, was to be effective immediately.

Alcorn, who lives at 621 Canyon Road, said that when he accepted the appointment in April, 1963, he was in the publishing business. Since then, he has changed occupations and is now a real estate salesman. He said he felt that there might be a conflict of interest between his job and the work of the planning commission.

He was reappointed for a four-year term a year ago.

No Session

The Novato Fire District board will not hold its regular meeting tomorrow night because of the holidays. Next meeting of the Board will be at 8 p.m. Jan. 3 at the main fire station at Grant Avenue and First Street.

Forgery Charge Jury Trial Set

Jury trial for John L. Mead of 7 Napa Avenue, Fairfax, yesterday was scheduled for Feb. 9 in Marin Superior Court.

Mead was arrested by San Rafael police and charged Nov. 12 with forgery of two $110 checks, one passed at the Bourbon Shop in Northgate Shopping Center, one at the Nave Lanes in Ignacio.

Before Judge Thomas F. Keating yesterday, Mead pleaded innocent by reason of insanity. The judge appointed two psychiatrists to examine the suspect and report prior to the trial.

Border Trouble

TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI)—An Israeli military patrol killed two armed Jordanians on camels in the Negev Desert last night when they ignored orders to halt, a military spokesman said today.

Rancher Sees No Conflict Between People And Cows

"There is no conflict between people and cows in our water improvement program," George W. Wheelwright III, owner of Green Gulch Ranch near Muir Beach, said today.

"Our ranch is just as concerned with quality of water is Muir Beach, but it is a fact of nature that the clover-grass combination we grow cannot thrive unless we get rid of the minerals.

"These, incidentally, while they cannot be good for people, are causing the bad-tasting coffee, rings around the tub, and the hard laundering at Muir Beach. Thus it seems to us that people and cows are on the same side," he continued.

A Muir Beach resident Dec. 14 said Wheelwright's program to leach his own well of salt might jeopardize the water of the nearby well owned by the Muir Beach Community Services District.

The rancher said he will supply water to residents for the next four months in the attempt to lower the salt content and determine availability of the underground reservoir which he believes the ranch shares with Muir Beach residents.

Wheelwright said his plan is to pump out the underground system during winter months "while nature is supplying fresh water which percolates down and leaches out the salt."

The rancher said he planned to make an offer to the Services District Dec. 2 to supply water to the residents pump for four months. The board meeting was cancelled. It is expected that the proposal will be discussed at the Jan. 6 board meeting, said Jack F. Harris, board president.

Asked to comment on the leaching, Harris replied, "It's going to help. We're always subject to salt water intruding into our well because we're so close to the ocean."

Seven Sanitarians In National Group

Marin County's seven sanitarians, including the head of the county sanitation department, William L. Desmond, have been accepted as members in the National Assn. of Sanitarians.

The six county sanitarians under Desmond whose applications for membership in the organization were also accepted are Makoto Yano, Maurice B. Scott, Low C. Chan, Arthur W. Marthinsen, James J. Jurick and Abraham Birdeh.

Kaiser Plans New Hospital

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — The Kaiser Foundation plans to build a four-to five-million dollar hospital here in 1956, Kaiser officials announced yesterday.

Kaiser Foundation disclosed the plan in requesting that the Redwood City Council close off one street in connection with the structure.

The hospital will be built near the Bayshore Freeway between Maple and Steinberger streets, adjacent to a clinic the foundation operates there now. There will be 100 to 150 beds in the hospital.

The foundation is asking the city to close the street so that the existing clinic will not be separated from the hospital when it is built.

Meeting Postponed By Novato Planners

The Novato Planning Commission meeting, sceduled for 8 p.m. next Monday has been postponed until Jan. 4, City Administrator J. Julien Baget announced today.

The commission will also hold its regular meeting on Jan. 11, Baget said.

TRAFFIC BARRIER—Residents at four homes on Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo, found it hard to use their driveways after this huge oak tree crashed down at 3:45 p.m. yesterday. It was only one of many big trees which were felled by the high winds of the winter storm which continued today.

effect to operate radar equipment at the 666th Radar Squadron atop Mount Tamalpais, according to information officer Lt. Gerald D. Wolfram. But the men at the base were not so well taken care of as their equipment.

The barracks and dining hall were without power from Sunday night until 1 p.m. yesterday, and Wolfram had to dig out a lantern and stove so 17 night shift workers could eat.

Wind velocity at the station reached 70 miles per hour at times yesterday, Wolfram said.

The Christmas spirit was visibly dampened for some people, as high winds blew Santa Claus from the roof of the Tiburon firehouse and brought down a large Christmas bell hanging over Novato's Grant Avenue east of Sherman Avenue.

The bell fell in the wind at 9:20 p.m. and hit a parked car, but did no damage to it.

Marin County Airport, north of Novato, remained closed today because of the wind, but the runway at Hamilton Air Force Base was open.

In Lagunitas, Joseph S. Sousa of Spring Avenue told sheriff's deputies at 6 a.m. today that a tree was blocking the end of his street, and later called to say another tree appeared ready to tumble. Cars were backed up in the street, he said. Deputies alerted road crews.

At 11:40 a.m. yesterday, the sheriff's office received a report that a tree had fallen on North San Pedro Road near Tweedie's General Store, 290 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, taking down three utility poles.

Cars belonging to a San Anselmo brother and sister were damaged at 9:30 a.m. today when a 50-foot cypress tree fell from the playground of Wade Thomas School, hitting the cars of Alice and Vincent Pallavacini of 107 Sunnyside Avenue, parked in front of their home.

At 11 Wellington Avenue, Ross, a two-foot thick oak tree, one of the biggest and oldest in the area, fell in the yard of Harry Ballou yesterday.

A 40 to 50 foot oak at 175 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo, blocked four driveways after it crashed down at 3:45 p.m. yesterday.

There was flooding yesterday in Granton Park. Four cars were towed to high ground there at 3:30 p.m., and commuters were rowed to their homes about 5 p.m. The water receded enough today, however, so that residents could go to work.

College of Marin's football field was under water today.

Electric power failed four times yesterday in Tamalpais Valley, causing the Tamalpais Fire Department to shift to emergency power. Power was out a total of two hours and 44 minutes, with failures at 1:17, 2:20, 6:38 and 8:42 p.m.

County road crews reported numerous flooded culverts, rock slides and trees down throughout the county, according to Public Works Director Donald Frost, but there were no serious problems and no roads closed.

Floods May Hit Harder Than In '55

with 18 inches of water. Harry Stroh, an electrical troubleshooter from Portland, was electrocuted near Cazadero dam three miles east of Estacada, Ore.

Elsewhere in the West:

Huge snow slides closed the main east-west route from Seattle across the Cascade Mountains today.

High winds, heavy rain and blizzards struck eastern Washington. A record snowfall of 22 inches closed airports and schools at Yakima in the central section.

Since a cold wave struck a week ago, 14 persons have been killed in Washington.

One-hundred mile an hour winds roared through Colorado today and caused extensive, but undetermined, damage to the university city of Boulder. Two persons were hurt.

One wall of the University of Colorado cyclotron building was blown down.

In Ketchum, Idaho, 42 inches of snow accumulated and continued to fall. The area, near Sun Valley, may be in the midst of a record snowfall, state officials said.

Lighter snow spread eastward across the northern tier of states into the Great Lakes region, with light snow in sections of the northern Atlantic Coast. Light rain, drizzle and fog dampened areas in the Southeast.

Data Processing Control Urged For Administrator

processing is a county resource or an office machine of the auditor-controller or something in between. Its operation, at present, seems to be a departmental device of the auditor-controller which may be used by others on rather clouded terms."

For example, the committee said, computer time is rented to non-county private users at $56.50 an hour, while the county schools office reported it pays $75 an hour.

During the past fiscal year school agencies were charged for 660 hours of computer time, and the $18.40 differential "resulted in an apparent overcharge of in excess of $12,000 in a single year," the committee said.

"This results in the incredible situation that the schools can buy time on the computer from an outside company more cheaply than they can buy time on the same machine directly from the county," the committee declared.

The committee also noted that Mitchell decides what is to be done in regard to data processing projects and when it will be done.

The supervisors should judge the value of data processing projects and "only the board of supervisors can determine the order of priority," the grand jury committee said.

"It appears the transactions of the data processing bureau are subject to no disinterested audit whatever since that bureau is assigned to the auditor-controller's office," the report went on. "It cannot be said the auditor's own audit of his own books is disinterested. This is not a question of lack of confidence of any particular incumbent in that office, but a matter of the political principle behind the creation of the office of auditor."

The committee said there is strong need for a general purpose data processing facility to meet the requirements of county government.

"Data processing is not only a job-executing tool of a new order, but also a tool that creates an entirely new dimension in planning and organization," the committee reported.

The committee said that Mitchell's handling of financial records is above reproach and there is efficient management of his office, but the data processing bureau and personal records be transferred to the county administrator.

The committee also noted a conflict between the data processing bureau and the voter registration division in regard to voter registration rolls.

The committee said "the status of the voter registration rolls of this county leaves much to be desired."

One citizen received four sample ballots indicating four entries on the voter registration list, the committee reported.

"We are sorry to report that after five months of intensive investigation we have been completely frustrated in our attempts to realize a workable solution or safeguard to the problem."

Few citizens, if any are being denied their right to vote, but "the level of inaccuracy in the voter registration rolls is not within tolerable limits, as we understand them," the committee declared.

"There is a clearly discernible conflict between the voter registration department and data processing department," the report said.

The committee said the conflict developed because:

1. The data processing bureau did not develope a satisfactory computer program nor properly utilize one prepared by Fair-Isaac Co. (at a cost of some $10,000 of the taxpayers' money).

2. The bureau failed to function as a "service bureau" and confused the situation by suggesting policy and reliquishments of another department's needs.

3. The voter registration department has attempted to gradually introduce automation into a manual system without a completed plan for full utilization.

4. There has been an obvious reticence on the part of both departments to "sit down and talk things over."

"Since this program has more or less 'drifted' for over two years, we feel that concerted action and close scrutiny is called for," the committee said.

It emphasized there "has been no hint, nor is there any intention on our part to suggest or insinuate any wrong doing on the part of any department head or his personnel in connection with any aspect of this investigation," the report said.

The committee also commented: "There is at present no mechanism for the electorate to specify or to measure the performance of the data processing function."

The proposed data processing commission could fill this role, it suggested.

The committee was assisted in its study by representatives of Fair-Isaac Co., Dr. Edward M. Lewis of Fair-Isaac was listed as the principal consultant.

Blackout Traps 2 In Elevator

A power failure at 6:38 p.m. yesterday trapped two Tamalpais Valley apartment dwellers 10 minutes in an elevator at The Pines, an apartment house at 396 Pine Hill Road.

The couple banged on the wall, alerting manager R. E. Roberts, who called firemen.

Fireman Carl Carlson rescued the couple by opening a hydraulic valve in the basement. They were in such a hurry to get out that Carlson didn't get their names. "But," he said, "They were man and wife."

Meningitis Victim Better

A 27-year-old Sausalito man was reported "out of danger" today following a meningitis attack which hospitalized him last Friday.

David Switzer of 11 Glen Court was reported recovering at Children's Hospital in San Francisco after being on the critical list several days.

Switzer did not come in contact with any one from Fort Ord where 108 cases of meningitis have been reported, his roommate, Jack Star, said today. Working in private business, Switzer has no friends at the fort to Star's knowledge.

Sergeant Turning Into Gas Station

M/Sgt. Raymond Queen of barracks at Hamilton Air Force Base, was turning from Nave Drive, Novato, into a service station and not a restaurant at the time of an accident last Friday afternoon involving Gregory Allen Garner of 230 Calle de la Mesa, Loma Verde.

The Independent-Journal yesterday incorrectly reported that Sergeant Queen was turning into a restaurant. Queen objected.

GRAND JURY REPORT

Personnel Records In Wrong Place

noted, but "his responsibility does not extend to any personnel matters other than payroll data and budgetary control."

The committee said that Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott has made improvement in the personnel program. But committee members reported they were "astounded to learn" that accomplishments were achieved "by a department lacking many of its most vital tools."

One of the committee's recommendations which has been acted upon by county supervisors is a new ordinance defining the duties of the county administrator.

After reviewing the past county administrator ordinance, the committee felt that the office of county administrator was "not operating at anywhere near peak efficiency and was, in fact, a somewhat disturbing element throughout all of the county departments."

The report said that the responsibility for the situation could not "be laid solely at the feet" of County Administrator Alan Bruce, because of lack—until the supervisors acted at the grand jury's prodding—of an ordinance detailing his duties and responsibilities.

The committee's report on other county offices included:

COUNTY CLERK—George H. Gnoss has an exceptionally heavy work load, and recommended that immediate steps be taken for relief.

He has on file more than 400 petitions for writs of habeas corpus as a result of the recent Dorado decision handed down by the Supreme Court, the committee said.

The committee recommended that two additional persons be hired in the county clerk's office and at least one additional person be hired for voter registration.

PUBLIC WORKS—Purchasing procedures could be strengthened and "great savings realized if this department were to draw upon the experience and knowledge of purchasing agent John Hettrick for advise and procedural recommendations," said the report.

The committee also "concluded that some lack of cooperation, or perhaps communication" was evident between the public works department and the county administrator.

VOTER REGISTRATION — The committee reported that proper security measures were not being exercised in the handling and storage of ballots and registrations.

"It has been a somewhat common practice to leave ballots either at collection stations or at the courthouse in a relatively insecure manner," the report said.

"We believe that this has been the result of the constant struggle to have the 'budget' keep up with the demands of a rapidly growing county."

The committee then expressed its appreciation to County Clerk Gnoss and elections supervisor John Musser for their prompt action and cooperation in "solving this important problem."

The report enclosed the new set of procedures for security of ballots that are now in effect.

PURCHASING DEPARTMENT — The committee noted that several months ago it made a suggestion that there be tightening of control on limited purchase orders by having purchasing agent Hettrich review such purchases.

"This has resulted in many dollars of savings to the county through his conscientious efforts and cooperation of department heads," said the report.

The committee recommended that all folding and stuffing machines be transferred to the central services division under Hettrich. "This will undoubtedly result in the necessary acquisition of additional space for central services, which in our opinion is long overdue," it commented.

EXTRA HIRE—The committee recommended a clerical personnel pool as a more efficient method of providing "extra-hire" personnel for departments.

Several county departments have varying peaks and valleys as far as work loads are concerned, and this results in "fairly substantial, yet erratic, extra-hire situations."

The committee said it would be more efficient to have department heads draw upon a well organized pool than hire part-time individuals as they saw fit.

Creation of a pool also "would again put a personnel matter in the personnel department and allow the department heads to further concentrate their efforts on their basic fields of responsibility," said the report.

RECORDER—Noel T. Giacomini "heads a smooth running and efficient department," and has maintained "a continuous program of upgrading and more complete automation and was progressing as rapidly as the budget limitations would allow," said the committee.

PUBLIC DEFENDER—Peter Alan Smith "is an extremely dedicated public defender and his professional reputation leaves no doubt that he is thoroughly qualified, "the report commented.

ASSESSOR AND TREASURER-TAX COLLECTOR—Bert W. Broemmel, county assessor, and Stanley J. Fonte, treasurer-tax collector, were given a special commendation for exemplary operation, morale and loyalty of their departments.

"We feel that assessment and tax criticisms often directed toward these two men, because of its effects on the taxpayer's pocket book are in almost all cases unjustified and we feel that the citizens of Marin may take pride in the integrity, fairness and competence of the men elected to these offices," the report said.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS—"The present board has given every indication of weighing, in full measure, the soundness of recommendations by this grand jury," said the report.

The committee said it "expressed its strong feeling regarding the lack of serious consideration given past grand jury reports by former boards."

The county offices committee of the Grand Jury is composed of Clifford S. Lund, chairman, John P. McNamee, Frank T. Perachiotti, James C. Scripture and Edward L. Thompson.

Council To Inspect Dance-Plan Site

Should there be an amphitheater and square dance platform in San Rafael's Gerstle Park? San Rafael city councilmen last night decided they'd like to make a close inspection on the site before saying yes or no.

Joseph D. Rodota, city parks and recreation director, recommended that the amphitheater-dance platform be installed in place of a rundown tennis court in the park in the city's northwest "old town" district.

The family of the late Caesar Bettini has offered to contribute $1,500 toward the project as a memorial. The Marin Folk Dance Council has agreed to contribute another $500, plus $1,000 worth of volunteer labor, and landscape architect Scott Tilden, a folk dance council member, has prepared a design.

Rodota said the existing tennis court is of little use, and rebuilding it would cost $7,100. The amphitheater, with wood floor for folk and square dancers, could be installed for half of that amount and would fill a recreation need, he suggested.

The conversion has been approved by the parks and recreation commission.

However, councilmen had before them a letter from Mr. and Mrs. George A. Leonhard Sr. of 32 to 42 Grove Street, protesting the plan. It said noise from the dancing and square dance calling would disturb neighbors, and there is insufficient parking area.

Councilman Charles W. Aby said he had received similar objections from other neighbors.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen commented that a bandstand and seats were removed from Boyd Park some years ago because "nobody used them."

Aby said the objections would be to noise at night from the dances. Rodota contended folk dances "are not a vociferous type of activity" and said there would be a 10:30 p.m. curfew because the outdoor lights would turn off automatically at that time.

Richard V. Bottini of 242 Locust Avenue, a son of Caesar Bettini, said the family wants to do something for the city and is "enthusiastic over the use." He said, "it's a natural bowl."

Tilden drew a map showing location of the proposed amphitheater, which is well within the park but about 200 feet from the former Lodge location on Grove Street.

Upshot was that the councilmen decided to make their own inspection, and instructed Rodota to sound out neighbors before the Jan. 4 meeting, when they may set a public hearing on the proposal.

Rodota said the parks and recreation commission does not want to cut down on tennis courts, but would prefer to build a new court at another location. That would be cheaper than rebuilding the court in Gerstle Park, he said.

Assessment Area Approval Paves Way For Industry

An assessment district that may pave the way for another large commercial-industrial development in San Rafael got its initial go-ahead from the San Rafael City Council last night.

The council approved preliminary engineering plans for the $434,000 Francisco Boulevard Assessment District, called for bids to be opened Jan. 18, and set public hearing for Feb. 1.

The district will include sewer, water and drainage facilities of 18 parcels of 60 or more acres on and near Francisco Boulevard in a section of East San Rafael not as yet developed. Sixteen owners are represented.

At urging of City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen, the council agreed the fee to the city for handling the assessment district bonds should be $5,000, instead of $2,500 as proposed by Edwin Ness, attorney for the district, and George J. Nolte, its engineer. Andersen pointed out that the large parcels would probably be rapidly subdivided, increasing the work of handling the bonds.

Ronald B. Simpkins of the Nolte firm presented the preliminary plan for the district. Ness said there have been meetings with the property owners and little or no protest is expected.

General Plan Hearing Asked Again

The San Rafael General Plan—tidelands portions of which brought heavy protest at two public hearings and played a perhaps-decisive role in the First District county supervisor election—is far from dead.

Mayor John F. McInnis told the San Rafael City Council last night he would like to schedule a third, and final, public hearing on the plan early in January.

Then, he said, it should go back to the city planning commission, which should invite the county planning commission to meet with it—because the plan extends well beyond the city limits.

Other council members agreed with the mayor's suggestions. No date was set for the third hearing, however.

Aleutian Search Set For Missing Sailors

ADAK, Alaska (UPI)—Further search will be made today, weather permitting, for some trace of 32 crew members of the freighter SS San Patrick.

The 521-foot freighter, of Liberian registry, radioed a distress signal last Thursday and her hulk was found Sunday breaking up on the beach of isolated Ulak Island in the Aleutian chain.

Graham Announces Evangelism Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Billy Graham announced today that a world conference on evangelism will be held in West Berlin in the autumn of 1966.

The meeting is planned Oct. 26 to Nov. 4 as an effort to bring together 1,200 church leaders, educators and evangelists to discuss evangelism in "a whole new day" in church affairs.

BENTON R. BALDWIN
Almost a casualty

Col. Baldwin Retires From A.F.

Col. Benton R. Baldwin, whose military career was highlighted when his plane was hit by enemy fire as he flew a reporter over a battle zone in World War II, retired last week at Hamilton Air Force Base.

A native of Deland, Fla., Colonel Baldwin has seen military service over a 32-year period. He entered flying training with the Army Air Corps in October of 1932 after completing Reserve Officers Training at University of California.

When he was in Europe during World War II, his B-17 was hit and set afire by enemy flak on a last paratroop mission. Heading back to allied lines, he ordered his crew members, the combat camera unit personnel and a news reporter to bail out. He then crash-landed the bomber behind allied lines.

Colonel Baldwin was first assigned to Hamilton in 1934. He left the service the following year and started work as an airlines pilot.

He was recalled to active duty at the outbreak of World War II. He was commander of the 29th Troop Carrier Squadron in North Africa and Siciliy. He later served in England. He returned to the United States in 1945 and a year later returned to civilian life as an airlines pilot. He was again recalled to the service in 1951 during the Korean conflict.

Colonel Baldwin and his wife, Audrey Jane, with their two sons, John Scott and Gregory Steven, live at 841 Montecillo Road, Terra Linda.

Russ-Finn Session

HELSINKI, Finland (UPI) — Presidents Anastas Mikoyan of Russia and Urho Kekkonen of Finland met today in the presidential palace overlooking Helsinki harbor. The foreign ministry said the talks were on "matters of mutual interest."

English Manhunt On For Escaped Slayer

LONDON (UPI)—Scotland Yard organized a nation-wide manhunt today for a child killer, reprieved from hanging, who escaped while Parliament was debating a proposal to abolish the death penalty.

Police sent an urgent warning to parents after the escape of Frederick Smith, 38, a Gypsy who was convicted in 1947 of shooting two children-a boy and his sister-near Worpleston, south of London.

Council Vows Uniform Work Week For All

Uniform work week and holidays for all San Rafael city employees were promised by city councilmen last night as a representative of police and firemen announced withdrawal of a petition for a referendum to amend the personnel ordinace.

The council directed City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen and City Atty. David Menary Jr. to meet with Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and Fire Chief Vance Trivett to work out details of the necessary amendments.

Police and firemen have been actually working a 40-hour week although ordinance calls for a 48-hour week. Members of the two forces have not received the same number of holidays as other city employees nor been compensated for all holidays in extra pay or time off.

Patrolman Gerald Sousa of police department appeared before the council as representative of both the police chief and the Police and Fire Assn. to declare: "We do not want anything more nor anything less than the rest of the city employees." He said the notice of intention to circulate an initiative petition on police and fire work week and holidays, filed by N. C. Green of 2215 Fifth Avenue, had been withdrawn.

All five councilmen assured Sousa that they believe personnel of the two departments should be treated the same as other city employees.

Mayor John F. McInnis commented that the city's personnel ordinance was long overdue for an overhaul. Councilman Charles W. Aby proposed the necessary changes be worked out by the city manager and the two chiefs.

At urging of Councilman Harry A. Barbier, the mayor directed that the proposed changes be presented at the Jan. 4 council meeting.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

1. Referred to the city manager for investigation a proposal that the city sell an undeveloped portion of Meadow Way in the upper part of Bret Harte, about 40 by 100 feet. Councilman L. H. Bud Baar suggested it was "a good place for kids to play" and might be kept for that purpose.

2. Declined to take action on a recommendation of the traffic committee for four-way stop signs at Laurel Place and Nye Street, where there are already stop signs on Laurel. Mayor McInnis and Councilman Aby said they could see no reason for the additional stop signs.

3. Granted Maggiora, Ghilotti and Madsen an 18-day extension for completion of the Third Street widening project at Montecito Center, to Jan. 15.

4. Set for public hearings on Jan. 4 appeals from planning commission decisions by Paul Sade, applicant for rezoning northwest of Bayo Vista Way, and Ed K. Lang, applicant for a subdivision in Rafael Racquet Club Estates.

5. Agreed to consider, and ask the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce for recommendations on, making the upper decks of the new double-decked city parking lots four-hour time limit areas.

6. Authorized Councilman Baar and City Manager Andersen to proceed with estimating value and seeking acquisition of 250 square feet belonging to Edward Wachsman needed for realignment of Third Street at E Street.

7. At suggestion of City Engineer Dominic J. Selmi, agreed to let the county public works department design the widening of Third Street from Embarcadero to the city line, and instructed Selmi to request he board of supervisors to authorize this be done.

8. Learned from the city manager that no Christmas tree of lights was erected atop San Rafael Hill this year because of the extreme damage by vandalism to the display last Christmas season.

9. At close of the meeting, Mayor McInnis on behalf of the council extended season's greetings "to all the people of San Rafael." Said the mayor, "It's been another progressive year for the city."

Robber Gang Invades Home

WALNUT CREEK (AP) — A robber gang of three men and a woman invaded a Contra Costa County home early today, tied up Mr. and Mrs. James Dorcy and ransacked their house. The Dorcys live in an isolated area near Alamo.

Dorcy is an East Bay automobile sales executive.

When Mrs. Dorcy responded to the doorbell at 1 a.m. the woman pushed in, followed by the men, one armed with a pistol.

The intruders, described as Negroes, took clothing, jewelry, radios and other portable items.

Developing Plane

PISA, Italy (UPI)—Italy is developing a vertical takeoff and landing jet transport plane, Pisa University sources said today. A prototype is expected to be ready "in a few months," they said.

Sierra Robbery

GRASS VALLEY (UPI) — A lone gunman made off with $1,600 yesterday in this Nevada County community's first bank robbery in a quarter of a century. A teller at the Mill Street Branch of the Bank of America said the robber shoved a bag and gun at her, ordered her to fill the bag with cash, and strolled out the door.

Morgan Gets Thanks From City Council

Thanks for a job well done was voted by the San Rafael City Council last night to W. L. Morgan, city clerk-finance officer who retired last week.

The council unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that "whereas, William L. Morgan has faithfully served the City of San Rafael as city clerk for over 11 years, and . . . because of his exceptional financial knowledge and experience the city council appointed him as finance officer in addition to his duties of city clerk of San Rafael . . .

"Be it resolved that (his) resignation . . . be accepted with sincere reluctance but at the same time the said council extends their congratulations and wishes for happiness and well being in the future."

When Morgan announced his plan to retire, the council decided to split the jobs of city clerk and finance officer. Orrin Wendling, recently of Santa Clara, was hired as finance officer. No replacement as city clerk has yet been appointed, with Deputy Clerk W. C. Cornwell currently performing the duties.

Woman Thwarts Holdup Attempt

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Three would-be bandits fled from a liquor store here yesterday when the clerk's screams brought her husband running with a rifle.

Mrs. Freida Troy, 54, was alone behind the counter of the store. The bandits walked in and one asked for a pack of cigarettes.

As Mrs. Troy turned to hand him the pack, she was confronted by a pistol. She slammed the money drawer shut with her stomach and yelled.

Her husband, Jim, 61, who was in a back room, ran out with a 30-30 rifle and the robbers fled, leaving behind their .38 automatic and a hat.

Auto Is Stolen

William Wright of San Francisco reported to Mill Valley police at 8:59 p.m. Sunday that his 1950 Ford was stolen from in front of 272 Buena Vista Avenue.

Electrical Group Is Told Representation Is Out

The National Electrical Contractors Assn. is not entitled to a representative on the San Rafael Board of Appeals, and does not tell the city council whom to appoint.

Councilmen made that plain last night after receiving a letter from the association, over signature of Hollis Sciallo, assistant manager. The letter suggested that Frank Knolle be replaced "as our representative" on the board by Oliver Mauch of Mauch Electric.

The board of appeals hears appeals from building department decisions.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said Knolls has not resigned, although there is a vacancy on the board.

"They should be disabused of the idea that they have a representative on the board of appeals," said Councilman Charles W. Aby.

Mayor John F. McInnis instructed the city manager to disabuse the association of that idea, in writing.

Stricter Lot Control Is Sought

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night approved a motion of intent to put stricter controls on small subdivisions and require larger lots for construction on hilly terrain.

The city now has little control of splitting of lots into two or three parcels and has a minimum lot size of 7,500 square feet whether the land is sloping or flat.

Commissioners still must work out details of their plans, which then will be submitted to the city council for passage as an ordinance.

The commission agreed to meet in special session or in committee with R. J. McGuinness to discuss the effect of their intentions on his plans to develop approximately nine acres on the tip of Belvedere Island for construction of 14 to 17 homes.

The commission approved a lot split requested by William P. Dumont at 429 Golden Gate Avenue. It set for Jan. 18 a hearing on a variance requested by David Sheldon at 3 Bellevue Avenue in connection with a lot split.

Money For Roads

Marin County has been allocated $95,347 for construction of county roads included in the federal aid secondary system, it was announced today by the State Department of Public Works.

Smash-And-Grab At Liquor Store

Burglars broke the glass door of Arcade Liquors, 643 Del Ganado Road, Terra Linda, early yesterday and made off with $42 in cash and $196 in spirits.

Owner Donald B. Maritzen, who discovered the entry at 8:39 a.m., said he thought there were probably atl east two men involved, judging from the amount of bottles carried away.

The liquor was taken out through the back door. Maritzen said his loss was covered by insurance.

Price Ceiling Needed On Assemblymen's Cars

For years, the state has been paying the cost of transportation of state legislators in the conduct of their official business.

This is nothing new. But the proposed new program, of buying cars outright instead of leasing them, poses a couple of questions.

First, should there be a ceiling placed on the amount to be paid by the public for cars ordered by each assemblyman? We believe there definitely should be a ceiling.

Second, why wasn't the matter, which involves the outlay of some quarter million dollars, discussed in public by the Assembly Rules Committee? A public hearing on the pros and cons could have forestalled any public outcry on the purchase plan.

So far as we can gather, the car purchase program proposed by the Assembly Rules Committee did not specify a price ceiling except the ceiling automatically imposed by the highest prices in effect in the Chevrolet Impala line.

Even without a price ceiling, a conscientious and frugal-minded legislator might settle for the lowest priced car. On the other hand, legislators are as human as the rest of us. Either because they are accustomed to luxury cars or feel that a luxury model with all the frills are more commensurate with their station in life, some of them might be tempted to ask for the best with the most.

Probably some of them did. (Our Assemblyman from Marin-Sonoma was not among those who asked for extras.) A Chevrolet Impala, fully power-equipped and laden down with super extras, can run up to $4,500 or more.

If one Assemblyman merits the most expensive model, all of his colleagues should deserve the same.

At the outset of the new program, the cars may range from the plush to bare economy sedans. But if a free choice is left to each Assemblyman, then in a few years, you can bet that every one of them would be putting in for the best.

The Assembly Rules Committee apparently decided that outright purchase and yearly trade-ins would be more economical than the lease-maintenance arrangement now in effect or mileage payment as in past years.

The committee must have reasoned that the Chevrolet, being a popular car, both in model and price, would be the best one.

So far so good. But we feel the committee goofed in not discussing the proposed new purchase plan in the open and in not announcing a ceiling on the price that could be spent on each car.

And any extras beyond the ceiling price should come out of the legislators' own pocketbooks, not from the public.

Civil Rights Progress Is Made Because People Feel It's Right

WASHINGTON — Nothing could be more welcome than to have events justify this question: How is it that the nation has won through so soon to such widespread acceptance of the civil rights law of 1964?

Its earnest enemies were confident that the new act would head into the same kind of nullification which destroyed Prohibition. Its earnest supporters were by no means sure it wouldn't happen.

IT ISN'T happening. The opposite is happening. Despite the awful punishment to which law and justice are being subjected in Mississippi, it is fair to say that massive observance is replacing massive resistance to making civil rights a reality for Negroes.

The question today is not whether this is happening — but why. What has brought it about? The apprehension was that widespread violation of the law would be so great that enforcement could be achieved only by creating, as Sen. Barry M. Goldwater predicted, "a police state."

Why is it that what many feared is not coming upon us?

I AM CONVINCED that the answer is that the American people, far from feeling that Congress imposed the civil rights law upon them, actually imposed this action upon Congress by their remarkable unanimity of conviction that it is morally just and constitutionally right—and let's get on with it.

The American people are showing decisive evidence that they want to see their nation unsullied by racial discrimination and that now is the time to carry forward the cause of equal rights for all citizens.

And it isn't going to take a police state to do it.

What happened is that by this week every voice of the American people has spoken clearly, conclusively, and with a consensus which cannot be doubted. Look at this radiant record:

THE PRESIDENCY — Civil rights legislation was strengthened twice under President Dwight D. Eisenhower's leadership. President John F. Kennedy took the initiative to propose the substance of the 1964 law and President Lyndon B. Johnson guided it to enactment.

THE CONGRESS — After thorough debate and refinement, both parties in both Houses gave their overwhelming support to the new law.

THE COURT—The Supreme Court has just upheld the constitutionality of the most controversial and challenged provision of the act—equal access to public accommodations. The decision was unanimous, 9 to 0.

THE GOVERNORS — The governors of the 50 states have with minor dissent given their sustained support to the civil rights cause.

THE COUNTRY — The 1964 presidential election was in substantial part a concrete ratification of the civil rights law. Senator Goldwater made civil rights a central issue in the campaign. President Johnson, who supported and signed the bill into law, received the largest popularity plurality and the highest percentage of the popular two-party vote in history.

Goldwater, who opposed and voted against the law on the ground that it was unconstitutional, suffered the worst defeat of any presidential candidate in history. Obviously civil rights was not the only issue, but it was a clear and present test.

PULPIT AND PRESS — In every section of the country newspaper editors and Protestant, Catholic and Jewish religious leaders have given voice to the nation's conscience. They gave overwhelming support to the passage of the law and to the presidential nominee who promoted its passage.

The notable progress being made today toward nationwide voluntary observance rests on this compelling national consensus.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

I-J Carrier Boy Is Given Praise

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In our world of the holiday season we find much to regret —the horror of the Congo situation, the lawlessness in Mississippi, the plight of the American Indian — and closer to home the less important but very irritating "snow job" in the matter of redistricting in Marin—so many things contrary to our "Christmas idealism."

Looking for a brighter note, I have found one in our I-J newsboy. He's such a little guy, maybe nine, say, going on 10? He has a round, boyish face and a crew cut. His young lungs huff and puff, his short legs churn up our sharp slope, evening after evening. I hear the "plop" and say to myself, "Here's our paper boy."

No rain, no dark, no heat, no cold has defeated him. When the going was easier, in the summer, he had help from other kids. Not now. The dark comes early here and he is alone. He finds his way up our slope, through our woods in the pitch black, with the catlike vision of a little boy, where no adult would venture without a flashlight.

So, my heart is on my sleeve, and my hat is off to our newsboy, Jeff Twitchell, one of our better citizens of Marin.

Campus Movements Held 'Real Danger'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I cannot sit by any longer without putting in my two cents worth about the continuing display of anarchy at U.C.

Two months ago, it seemed impossible to most of us that the FSM could go this far, and I doubt that the leaders themselves expected to succeed in their demands and ultimatums.

The only good to come from this "experience" is the possible awakening of many hitherto complacent citizens, who sit back and tell us that it is ridiculous to believe that a subversive organization could become entrenched in our society. As most people know by now, similar demonstrations are being planned in other major universities, using whatever pretext suits the purposes of the leaders.

Anyone who understands the Communist ideology realizes that only a handful of "believers" is needed to push the cause. They then use the many unsuspecting and misguided do-gooders to do their bidding. This method, successful in other parts of the world, will continue to work so long as we, American citizens, continue to sit idly by and say it can't be done. What is it going to take to wake us up to the real danger of these so-called movements? I sincerely hope we don't wait too long to protest.

Student Stresses Right To Question

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As a student at UC please allow me to insert a note of sanity into the public dialogue concerning the free speech controversy. I wish to speak first on point three of the Academic Senate's proposal for freedom of speech on campus. It reads as follows: ". . . the content of speech or advocacy should not be restricted by the University . . ." This does not legitimize speech which would otherwise be considered illegal off-campus but merely prevents the University administration from acting as a judge of the legality of such speech. The University is susceptible to outside political and social pressures, and therefore, it cannot possibly act as an impartial body . . .

A university is one of the few places in society where a person can think amorally; he can rip apart all ideas, examine them and act upon them without having to accept society's standard of morality. If a state will not allow its universities to criticize and attempt to change society, that society will only perpetuate itself and is doomed to stagnation . . .

These are the rights the students are demanding . . . We students ask you, the older generation who have left us what we consider a troubled world, to listen to us.

If nothing else please try to understand us. To dismiss us as bunch of radical, Communist inspired beatniks avoids the real issue and does neither you nor the world any good.

Fire Shelter Urged For All Rest Homes

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The problem of homes for the elderly people being more or less fire hazards worries me, and I'm sure a lot of people. Being that you would know and could contact a lot of these homes of the fire danger. There should be a (model) structure and a law to have this structure at all elderly homes. This structure would be fireproof and heat resistant, with access from every floor . . .

THREE MINUTES A DAY

PROMOTE RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY

"There's a bit of the rebel in us all" is an old saying that applies to persons of every age.

When rebellious impulses are held in check and the reasons for legitimate authority are grasped, valuable energies can be usefully employed instead of dissipated.

Give encouragement to those who must "go against the grain" to practice obedience to parents, to teachers and to law enforcement officials, as well as to God Himself.

Those in authority occasionally abuse their office by making unreasonable demands. Take it as a lesson not to make the same mistake when you will be giving orders yourself.

Robert E. Lee once told students at Washington College: "You cannot be a true man until you learn to obey."

See in obedience to rightful authority not servitude to a human being but rather submission to God, Who has chosen to govern His world through the medium of men.

"We must obey God rather than men."
(Acts 5:29)

Deepen in me, O Father, a respect for all true authority.

SACRAMENTO SCENE

Here Are The Top 10 Stories For California During 1964

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The one single biggest story in California government during 1964 was well under way before the year started and shows no signs of quitting as the year ends—the Rumford Housing Act and Proposition 14, which repealed it by a two-to-one vote of the people.

While the housing initiative and the by-play before and after it was placed on the ballot rates as the No. 1 story for 1964 in the Capitol News Service poll, the story in the No. 2 spot perhaps will have a more important effect on California government and likely will be No. 1 in the coming year.

THAT IS the ordered reapportionment of the State Senate. It began on June 15 when the U. S. Supreme Court ordered that both house of legislatures in all the states be apportioned solely on the basis of population. The result will be a change in government in California as it has been known for nearly 30 years.

Here are the rankings of the top political and governmental stories on the Sacramento scene for 1964:

1. The battle to qualify Proposition 14 for the ballot, its approval by the voters and attempts to test it in court.

2. The ordered reapportionment of the State Senate.

3. The Democratic primary election campaign for the U.S. Senate, climaxed by the withdrawal of U. S. Sen. Clair Engle and the nomination of Sen. Pierre Salinger.

4. The election of George Murphy to the U. S. Senate in the November voting.

5. The battle over whether 790 million dollars in bond issues for beaches and parks, school building aid and construction should be voted on in June or November.

6. The 1.3-million-vote victory of President Lyndon B. Johnson in the Nov. 3 election.

7. The gains made by the Republicans in the Legislature in the Nov. 3 election, despite Johnson's landslide.

8. The coming expiration of the bracero program for importing Mexican farm workers and attempts to find supplementary labor to replace them.

9. The intra-party fight in the GOP between so-called moderates and so-called right-wingers, including the Goldwater - Rockefeller primary battle and Goldwater's victory on June 2.

10. The long and hectic special session of the Legislature.

IN THE "also ran" column for 1964, there also were such running stories as the split between Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D - Inglewood), the talk of new and higher taxes for 1965, the Freedom of Speech Movement at the University of California and its involvement of state officials, continued progress in construction of the state water project, and the other initiatives on the Nov. 3 election ballot, including the proposed state lottery, the anti - pay television measure, and the initiative to end featherbedding practices on California railroads.

AT DINNER one evening, little Willie upset the soup bowl. Then his older brother Max overturned a dish full of stewed tomatoes. Then sister Mae's slab of roast beef slid off the plate all over her newly-laundered frock. Finally Pop Willett overturned a whole platter of ice cream covered with chocolate sauce. "Congratulations, Pop," exclaimed the by-now thoroughly exasperated Mrs. Willett. "You've won the spilling bee."

A VACATIONER came upon a fisherman and inquired, "Having any luck?" "Pretty good," said the fisherman. "I haven't had a bite in two hours." "What's good about that?" wondered the vacationer. "You see that fellow on the other bank? He hasn't had a bite in FOUR hours."

A PLUMBER advertised for a helper. The first applicant, when asked if he had a reference, admitted, "I forgot it. I'll have to go get it." "Never mind," decided the plumber. "You're hired. I see you've got experience."

Formosa Military Aid May Be Phased Out

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson and his inner council of foreign affairs advisers are deliberating the possible phasing out of the Military Advisory and Assistance Group on Formosa.

Under proposed sweeping changes in policy toward both Nationalist and Red China, as advocated by influential State Department authorities, the 1,600 U. S. training and communications personnel on Formosa would be shifted over a period of months to other Pacific bases—among them Okinawa.

IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE of "eliminating the U. S. military presence" on Formosa would be to induce Peking to sit down at a conference table to discuss a settlement of the entire strife-torn Southeast Asia problem.

This is what Acting Undersecretary of State Llewellyn Thompson is outlining in closely guarded briefing for congressional and other key leaders.

While carefully stressing President Johnson has made no decisions, Thompson, who is also special White House adviser on Soviet affairs, is indicating some action is likely before the next meeting of the U. S. and Communist Chinese ambassadors in Warsaw in February.

THESE BACKSTAGE exchanges have been going on since they were initiated in the Eisenhower administration in 1955. The last meeting was in November.

Another extremely significant point made by Thompson, former ambassador to Moscow, is that an extensive review of policy toward both Nationalist and Red China is under way in the State Department.

This potentially momentous survey will include the U. S. position regarding Quemoy and Matsu, the two powerfully-armed Nationalist strongholds off the Chinese mainland. At irregular intervals they are subjected to shelling by Red batteries, the last time several weeks ago when 58 rounds were fired.

THOMPSON GAVE no indication who is directing the study or when it is to be completed. However, it is being expressly made for the National Security Council, top policy-making body headed personally by the president.

Behind this potentially eventful policy review are certain State Department "position papers" that project even more spectacular changes than phasing out the MAAG force on Formosa.

One of these papers going the rounds in high administration quarters propounds the view that the time is approaching for the U. S. to consider revising its attitude toward the seating of Red China in the United Nations—which has been consistently opposed by every administration since the rise of the Mao Tse-tung regime.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON will definitely go to Europe in the spring. Secretary of State Dean Rusk told that to President Charles de Gaulle and other NATO leaders during his Paris conference.

In the past three years, Cuba's foreign trade deficit has steadily soared; this year it is estimated as exceeding 310 million dollars. Castro is in such dire financial straits that he had to obtain an emergency loan of 50 million dollars in Soviet credits to meet obligations due Britain and Canada. Russia is apparently becoming increasingly chary of Castro, because it demanded payment of its latest loan of 16 million dollars in 180 days. Simultaneously, Moscow also turned down a Castro plea for $900,000 to buy European machinery.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

Novato Is Forerunner In Marin For Old Spanish Yule Custom

IT'S AN OLD Spanish custom, but it spread to Mexico, the southwestern United States and then to Novato. So far Novato is the only city in the Bay Area to observe this old Spanish custom of lighting luminarios on Christmas Eve and Christmas night.

These are little lights formed by placing candles in brown paper bags and setting them along the sidewalk. When entire neighborhoods follow this custom, the entire streets are aglow on those two nights.

Although it started out as a small project in the Westridge area, it grew year by year until that entire end of town observed it last year.

THIS YEAR, the Novato Chamber of Commerce became the clearing house for information on how to light the luminarios in an attempt to make it a city wide custom.

Last year the streets west of South Novato Boulevard were jammed with cars coming from all over to see the luminarios.

An even bigger crowd is expected this year.

COL. CHARLES D. Chitty Jr., commander of the 78th Fighter Wing at Hamilton has received an honor from the 49th state. He was named the first honorary life member of the Anchorage, Alaska, Racquet Club.

Colonel Chitty founded the organization while stationed in Alaska in 1960. This was the first honorary membership in the club since it was started.

"AS THE TWIG is bent . . ." is a saying so old that Solomon probably copied it 4,000 years ago. Nevertheless, it is as true today as it ever was.

There are a couple out in Tomales that must have done a good job in bending their twigs in the right direction. They are Roy and Lois Parks. Both the parents are active in community affairs, each serving on a school board.

They must have set not only good examples to their sons, but trained them in the way which they felt that they should go.

The Tomales High School board last week took note of this. It sent a letter of commendation to Bob Parks who graduated last year from Tomales High School and is now attending Santa Rosa Junior College.

BOB WAS ONE of six national winners exhibiting sheep projects at the National 4-H Conference in Chicago. Bob had one of 60,000 4-H sheep projects in the country.

His brother, Wayne, who is a senior, received one of the national football foundation scholarship athlete awards.

In noting the achievement of these two boys at its board meeting, the Tomales High School trustees were probably proud of the product turned out by their high school. However, we'll wager that they could not be nearly as proud as a couple of parents.

COMMUTERS HEADING north through southern Novato in the early evening hours are treated to the sight of a huge Santa Claus which apparently is riding high in the air.

Actually, the Santa Claus is sitting on top of the rock hill at the north gate to Hamilton Air Force Base. With the gate closed and dark, the Santa Claus seems to be high in the sky. By daylight, one can really see what a big Santa it is.

In Novato several neighborhoods have gone together this year in decorating their houses for the holidays. In one neighborhood, home owners thought that they would work together and make one huge Nativity scene. Neighbors asked one well-known housewife to make and erect the donkeys in her yard.

She refused saying that people would see them in her yard and say she had made an ass of herself again.

WITH THE RESIDENTS of such areas as Pastel Lane putting on such community wide displays each year, and the luminarios decorating a big area of the city, Novato will attract more than its share of those going out to see the Christmas decorations this year.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

The Senate voted to censure Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis).

Ted Gibson was elected president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Lee Townsend was elected chairman of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council to succeed Francis L. Newton, who organized the group in 1952.

20 YEARS AGO

John J. Taafe of Marin County was appointed to the Northern California committee to investigate the administration of criminal justice in the State Bar of California.

The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee was benefitted by a puppet show and holiday toy fair and sale at the Mill Valley Outdoor Art Club.

'Wife-Talk' Language Remains Mystery To Man All His Life

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a widespread belief that the most important language in the world today is English.

However, there is in existence a language that is even more powerful and expensive. It is wife-talk.

TO BECOME a real scholar of this widespread form of communication, it is practically necessary for the student to be two things: male and married.

The first thing a man has to learn about wife-talk is: It never means what it says. It has to be translated.

Wife-talk is made up of hint and innuendo, gesture as well as spoken word.

ANOTHER THING a husband needs to learn in dealing with his bride is never to take her oral expressions literally. Mystery between him and her begins at the altar and never ends.

The rest of his life he will spend desperately trying to find out what the devil she is really trying to express.

They are having a meal together and she says sweetly, "Dear, won't you have some more steak?"

THE RECENT bridegroom naturally thinks she is interested in his welfare and pleasedly replies, "Yes, sweetie-pie, thanks, I think I will."

What he doesn't realize is that wife-talk is always couched in the form of indirect discourse and that what his bride actually meant was, "I'm starved, stupid — pass me the meat."

At a cocktail party she says of a blonde the men are clustering around, "Isn't her hair lovely?" What she actually means is, "Stay away from that dyed hussy, Buster."

SHE SAYS wistfully on a rainy day. "If anything should ever happen to me, dearest, I want you to marry again and be happy." What she means is, "If you do, stupid, I'll haunt you forever."

Wife-talk, of course, requires an answering form of communication. This is known as husband-talk. It has been scientifically reduced to a single sentence.

NO MATTER what a wife says, the wise husband invariably replies:

"Baby, you said a mouthful!"

This is the only thing he can say which is true. If he says anything else at all, he is bound to get himself in trouble.

Peninsula Carol Tradition Tonight

Caroling residents of Belvedere and Tiburon will continue a 15-year tradition tonight when they join to sing Christmas carols.

The singing group will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Boardwalk Shopping Center on Tiburon Boulevard and is open to all comers.

Edwin L. Blackmore of Belvedere will conduct the carolers as they serenade patients at the Marin convalescent and rehabilitation hospital in Tiburon and at homes where there are shutins.

SOME LITTLE KID STUCK A STAR RIGHT ON TOP OF OUR SYMBOL

We have a lot of these symbols lying around the bank, all the time. They inspire everyone. After all, they've come to represent growth, and strength, and the newest in banking ideas and service. So, we're pretty proud, and tend to leave them all over the place. But anyway, one day last week, we were working like mad as usual and in wanders this little kid with one of those gold crayons. We asked him if he wanted a charge-free checking account, or to open a school account or a Christmas club or what? He didn't say a word. He just climbs on the desk and starts drawing these cute little stars on top of all our symbols. Then he says, Merry Christmas, and wanders out. And we haven't seen him since. So now we've got a whole bank full of symbols with gold stars on top. And all we can think about is Christmas. So, we finally gave in to it all, and decided to have the best Christmas ever. May we start, by wishing you and yours every happiness of your finest dreams. And that's just a starter. Right, kid?

Incomes, Personal Savings Rising At A Nice Clip

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Incomes have been rising at a nice clip. And so have personal savings. Together that tells a lot about December's gains in retail sales, and merchants confidence that the bills in January can and will be paid.

Individual savings increased in the first nine months of this year by 22.5 billion dollars. The gain was about one-third more than in the like period of 1963.

The big boost is tied in with the rise in personal incomes, now running at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 502 billion dollars, compared with 474.5 billion dollars in the final stretch of 1963.

But the rise in savings also shows that Americans haven't changed their habits much despite all the stress on prosperity. They're spending more because they're making more. They're also saving about the same percentage of their incomes as before the federal income tax cut.

That the big jump in the total of incomes is spurring a corresponding rise in retail sales is obvious in most cities this month. Record December volume already is in the bag. And the bulge in charge accounts and installment loans is reported at about the normal rate. So the spending splurge doesn't worry many save the most chronic pessimists.

The additional money comes from more persons having jobs, some working at higher wage scales, many getting more overtime, and almost all enjoying larger take-home pay because of the cut in the federal income tax.

The spending stems from this additional money, but also from the general confidence that good times will continue—that the January bills can be met, and others right along for months to come.

But debt also has been increasing faster than a year ago, both in mortgages and consumer credit. This increase frets few economists so long as total incomes continue to rise.

The Securities and Exchange Commission reports that in the first nine months of this year individuals decreased their holdings of common and preferred stock by 1.5 billion dollars. The drop was less than in 1963.

The New York Stock Exchange, however, says that its Monthly Investment Plan—whereby individuals buy shares at a regular rate—is chalking up its best year yet. It started in 1954. Some 6,509 plans were opened this November, to top the previous November record of 4,192 set in 1956. In the first 11 months of this year 56,930 plans were started. The previous full-year record was 45,593 plans in 1959. The SEC counts investment in stocks as one of many forms of saving.

All the records—income, savings, debts, spending — reflect totals for all citizens. The individual may have quite a different story himself. But counting in all Americans with pay checks, or other forms of income, this December sees more money than ever before available for spending or saving. And the new year looks bright.

DIVIDENDS: SOME TAXED, SOME AREN'T

Most dividends received from corporations in which you own stock are taxable, but there are exceptions which should not be overlooked.

Some dividends are paid either partly or entirely out of capital of the corporation rather than out of its accumulated earnings. To the extent dividends are paid out of capital, they are usually not taxable.

Generally the paying corporation will furnish a notice stating what part of a dividend is not taxable. Read these notices carefully and save them for use in preparing your tax returns. Some of the distributions of mutual funds are taxable at the preferential capital gains tax rates.

Again, read your notices accompanying such dividends carefully and use them to avoid overpaying your taxes.

Marin Building Pace Leads 1963

Awards during November for new construction in Marin totalled $5,134,212. This is an average amount for November and brought the cumulative total for the year to $83,366,432 which is slightly above the 1963 experience, according to the Marin County Development Assn.

Novato and nearby unincorporated areas accounted for the largest total with permits valued at $1,771,635, of which $1,209,195 was outside the city. San Rafael authorizations amounted to $1,227,7529.

Included in the "other unincorporated" area was $445,000 in awards for enlargement of the Las Gallinas Sanitary District facilities.

PG&E Planning New Facilities

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pacific Gas and Electric Co. has announced it will spend about 275 million dollars on new facilities in 1965.

The company operates in Northerrn and Central California.

The money will go for new plants, power lines, substations, gas pipe lines and related facilities.

President Robert H. Gerdes said major power installations totaling 2,112,500 kilowatts are under construction. Of this total 540,000 kilowatts will be put in service by the end of 1965.

U.S. Steel Industry Trend Encouraging

By BOB VOELKER

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The steel industry set a string of records in 1964, the industry's second good year in a row.

Production zoomed to a new mark that was expected to total about 127 million tons when final figures are in.

Profits were up for most companies. It appeared some producers would reap record incomes for the year.

And steelmen, who have been spending money on new plants and equipment almost with a passion, reportedly plunked down 1.8 billion dollars for capital improvements in 1964, another record.

But some steel observers say the significant thing of 1964 wasn't the production record, the profits or the spending, but rather the realization that the once-retreating industry was moving ahead again.

For the first time in years, steelmen said they detected signs of success in a long-term struggle against competing materials and the steel industry's own old age.

The brightening picture stems from the adoption of new production and processing ideas through the spending of millions upon millions of dollars for modernization — a vast, research-oriented program that seems destined to carry the industry to sparkling heights in the years to come.

The big surge dates back to 1960, the year the record 116-day steel strike ended. It picked up additional steam following the epic clash with the government over a steel price increase in 1962.

Pushed along by a bustling national economy, steel consumption also was expected to hit a record in 1964 when all figures are in, beating the old mark of 77.8 million tons consumed in 1963.

The five biggest steel companies showed an over-all profit increase of 27 per cent in the first three quarters of 1964 compared to the same period of 1963.

Steel production clipped along at a remarkably even level in the year just ended, a result of no threat of labor trouble and good business conditions generally.

The only dark spot in the industry was another increase in foreign steel imports. The American Iron and Steel Institute estimated that imports hit a record 6 million tons, up 500,000 tons from 1963. The AISI said American steel imports increased a little over the 1963 figure of 2.2 million tons.

With the exception of possible labor trouble, steel people generally feel 1965 will be another good year for the industry.

Airlines Announces Oakland Schedule

OAKLAND—Start of Pacific Southwest Airlines Super Electra jet non-stop service between Oakland and Los Angeles is scheduled to begin on Jan. 5, J. F. Andrews, president of the airline and George J. Vukasin, president of the Oakland Board of Port Commissioners, have announced.

PSA will provide 32 flights a week in each direction.

Newsprint Use Up Over Last Year

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. has disclosed that nearly 7.5 million tons of newsprint were used in the first 11 months of 1964, compared to a little more than 6.75 million tons last year.

Newspapers consumed 549,913 tons last month, or 5 per cent over last year's figure for November.

Dewey Junior Gets High Post

NEW YORK (AP) — Thomas E. Dewey Jr., son of the former New York governor, will become the youngest general partner of Kuhn, Loeb and Co. on Jan. 1. He is 32.

Dewey joined the firm in 1958 and was appointed a vice president a year ago.

Asked if his father's name had helped him in business, Dewey replied: "It's hard to say specifically. The name tends to engender good will — that's a good phrase. But when you get down to business, I couldn't say."

New Ice Cream Parlor Is Run By An Old Hand; Wine Tour Planned

Recently opened Red Topper's Old Fashioned Ice Cream Parlor at 1557-A South Novato Boulevard, Novato is a "plus" occupation for Louis A. Bresciani of that city—who says he has been making ice cream all his life.

Daytimes he is employed in the Spreckels Russell Dairy plant in San Francisco. After hours he takes over the counter of Red Topper's from his wife Harriett. The store, with its 39 flavors, has fountain and take-out service; also sells Margaret Burnham Cottage Candies.

A WINE AND FOOD TOUR of South America being organized for Marinites by Redwood Travel Advisors, San Rafael, will be conducted by enophile, author and lecturer Leon D. Ames of Sausalito.

The month-long journey which begins Feb. 3 will be highlighted by a four-day stay at the Carnival in Rio de Janeiro. Visits to San Rafael, Argentina; Sausalito's sister city Vina del Mar in Chile and stops at Lima, Cuzio, Machu Picchu, Santiago, Mendoza, Iguazu Falls, Buenos Aires, Montevideo, Sao Paulo and Brasilia are scheduled.

Frank George at Redwood notes that South American vintners and their associations are prepared to go all out in hospitality for the visiting group, which will be limited to 25 persons. Braniff International Airways is providing jet service.

HANDY DUTCHMAN Vladimir Levintza — a watchmaker, jeweler and musician — has moved his shop from Fourth Street, San Rafael to 1212 Second Street.

HUGH MARCHANT, newly elected president of the Marin County Real Estate Board, will attend the annual officers' indoctrination program conducted by the California Real Estate Assn. at the San Francisco Hilton Hotel Jan. 8.

Edward P. Ward of Tiburon, regional vice president for CREA for this area will also attend a special session of the program devoted to preparing the 31 regional vice presidents for activities and duites of that office. They had their orientation session last month. New CREA president David N. Robinson of Berkeley will be installed at an inaugural luncheon meeting at the Hilton Jan. 9.

FORMER Northwestern Pacific Railroad division engineer O. G. Linde has been made manager of industrial development for Southern Pacific Co., with headquarters in San Francisco. He and his family now live in Menlo Park.

Bottarini

Linde

BASALT ROCK CO., Napa, which does quite a bit of business in Marin County, has announced the appointment of Virgil L. Bottarini of Healdsburg as superintendent of its Russian River plants there and also the Santa Rosa plant to fill the vacancy created by the death of James D. Kennedy.

Bottarini, a native of Napa, joined Basalt as bookkeeper in 1939, later became chief clerk, office sales manager and in 1956 was transferred to Healdsburg as assistant to Kennedy.

HENRY HELBIG of Peacock Gap, president of Henry Helbig Management Consultants, Inc., San Francisco and San Jose, has returned from New York City where he opened another branch office.

CHORAL PROGRAMS are being presented each afternoon up to Christmas this week at Bank of Marin offices in San Rafael and Novato.

This Christmas give the man who has everything something he's never had before

ACCUTRON SPACEVIEW "H"
10K gold filled case, waterproof*, luminous dial and hands, with matching 10K gold filled expansion band.
$150.00

...the right time of day.

Even the most expensive watch can't keep time as precisely as Accutron. That's because all the mechanical parts that make a conventional watch fast or slow have been left out of it. The Accutron movement is electronic. It's powered by a battery that keeps a tiny tuning fork vibrating 360 times a second, and it comes with the first guarantee of accuracy ever given. (You might like to know that the U.S. uses Accutron movements in satellites and issued them to all X-15 pilots.) You can't give a man a more perfect gift of time.

Joint Recreation Budget Rejected In Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Town Council stuck to its guns in the face of a petition bearing 700 names last night in rejecting a proposed $11,600 budget for the last half of 1965 for the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission.

The turndown was by 3-2 vote.

Councilman William W. Collier moved to approve the budget, but found support only from Councilman Albert E. Kogler, a member of the recreation commission.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst led the opposition, saying he wanted to see the people of Corte Madera vote on whether a tax should be levied to support a recreation program. He said that if the budget were approved, the city would in effect be levying a nine-cent tax spread over 18 months for recreation.

Councilman Norman R. Barnett said he also thought the people should vote on the matter.

J. W. McClintock, head of the commission, contended the budget as proposed would not increase the town's costs more than a few hundred dollars. Kogler, agreeing said recreation costs had reached a "plateau" with the hiring of a fulltime director, Robert C. Bundy.

The town has gone on record that it intends to pull out of the two-city arrangement June 30.

Councilman Charles F. Pendleton asked again about the possibility of forming a special district to levy the tax, even if only Corte Madera were included.

McClintock said such a special district would have to include city parks and would cost more for less service.

Councilman Collier said he opposed having a referendum on the tax, because councilmen had been put into office to make just such decisions. commission member Curtis Kamai backed him up. "I heartily disagree," said Colthurst.

Collier noted that the town has still six months before the money would be needed, and said he expects to bring the matter up again. He said he might agree to calling a special election if he fails to swing one councilman's vote.

COUNCILMEN BACK BAN ON PARKING

Mill Valley To Go Over Proposal To East Blithedale At Jan. 4 Meeting

Mill Valley City Council agreed last night that parking should be prohibited on the north side of East Blithedale Avenue between Dell Street and the city line.

However, the council will go over the matter again Jan. 4, with the idea of perhaps forbidding parking only during certain hours.

The council also went on record favoring sidewalks on portions of East Blithedale which have none, the cost to be determined after City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer gets further information.

Citing one fatality this year on the street, which carries the city's heaviest traffic, Councilman Albert E. White said the most important thing is to have no parking during hours of peak traffic. He suggested parking be permitted before 7 a.m. and after 7 p.m.

Manuel Gomez and Rodric L. Robinson, in the audience, endorsed this.

Police Chief Dan Terzich recommended no parking at any time.

Some sidewalks on East Blithedale are out of alignment, reported Stanley M. Bala, city engineer. It is impossible to leave them as they are, he said.

Councilman William M. Secor said he feels it is unfair that a citizen, who already has a sidewalk installed, should have to redo the walk.

Balmer, who recommends sidewalks to be constructed at property owners' expense, said half the properties have them. Thirty-four do not.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

1. Adopted an ordinance approving the Lamon Cochran Jr. and Ralph Hernande annexation, 11.25 acres between Edgewood and Cypress avenues.
2. Adopted a resolution abandoning the old Corte Madera sewer line.
3. Changed a joint meeting of the council and parks and recreation commission from Jan. 9 to Jan. 16 at 9:30 a.m.
4. Agreed to apply for $70,000 in federal funds to complete the lower floor of the proposed new library but said this will not bind the city when bids are submitted.
5. Welcomed back William P. Feeney, "the sixth councilman," who has been ill and not attending meetings. At meeting's end, a letter from Feeney extending season's greetings and compliments to the council was read.
6. Adopted a resolution approving a limited taxi license not to exceed 45 hours a month to Albert J. Silveira of 36-B Miller Avenue, with understanding it is non-transferrable.
7. Adopted a resolution establishing salary of $436 per month and classification of parking enforcement officer.
8. Authorized an added patrolman, provided for in the budget, to be paid $517 per month to fill the spot of retiring Sgt. John Imperiale and bring police strength to 15.
9. Continued to Jan. 4 a request by Manuel Gomez for a major subdivision at Gomez Way and Homestead Boulevard, following a vote to deny in which there were two "yes" votes, a "no" vote by Councilman White, and abstention by Wornum. Councilman George E. Wickham was absent. Sheeks moved denial on grounds of inadequate and improper road resign.
10. Approved a one-year use permit for S and A Sports Center to run an automobile sales business at 507 Miller Avenue.
11. Heard a letter from S. E. Cook, chairman of Boy Scout Troop 34, commending Police Sgt. Lee Sellers' action in recovering a $600 soft drink machine stolen from Scouts at Old Mill Park. Sellers is in French Hospital with a slipped disc.

GETS WINGS—Second Lt. Alfred T. Tichenor, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tichenor of 129 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, has been awarded silver pilot wings on graduation from flying training school at Moody Air Force Base, Ga. He has been assigned to Alconbury RAF Station in England, a NATO base.

Corte Madera Cable Franchise Is Decided

Televue Systems of Marin, Inc., may provide a community antenna service to Corte Madera residents, the Town Council decided last night, but the terms of the town franchise have yet to be worked out.

The decision, on a motion by Councilman Charles F. Pendleton, was based on a recommendation by a three-man study committee, which noted that Televue had already gained public utilities commission approval to hang cables on poles and was expected to gain similar approval soon from Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The vote had the effect of excluding a competing company, Clear View Cable Systems, Inc., from operating in Corte Madera.

Clear View representative Richard C. Webster said his firm did not need PUC or phone company approval because it intended to put the cables underground. Webster said the underground cable could be used for closed-circuit educational television, while overhead cables could not.

Lindsey H. Spight, speaking for Televue, said his company would put cables underground when other major utilities went underground.

Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis was asked to present in January provisions for tightening the town's community antenna television ordinance, requiring free service to schools and public buildings, and providing that the company post af $50,000 bond.

Many terms of the franchise have yet to be worked out, but the committees composed of Wallace G. Colthurst, Herber C. Leney and Oakley W. Dexter, advised the council to go slowly.

The committee said the franchise should be for no more than 10 years. The amortization period on the company's investment was estimated at nine years. Town ordinance allows franchises for up to 20 years.

Hub Chamber Told To Draft Plan For Sign

The San Anselmo Planning Commission told the city's chamber of commerce last night it wants to see plans before approving a sign requested by the chamber for the city's parking lot "A."

The sign would point out the downtown business district from the parking lot proposed on the old Greyhound bus depot property.

The chamber of commerce asked the commission to allow them to put up a sign that would fit in with the landscaping plan of the new parking lot but the commission asked the chamber to design the sign and then submit the design.

The commission decided that a requested rezoning from single family dwelling to apartments of a lot at 44 Magnolia Avenue conflicts with the city's down town center plan but agreed to meet with the city council Jan. 8 before deciding whether to turn down the rezoning request. Action on Allan Larkins Jr.'s request for the rezoning was postponed to Jan. 18.

Under the downtown center plan a street would run through the lot.

The San Anselmo Planning Commission also:

1. Denied J. Gallagher permission to split a lot on Center Road because the lot sizes would be too small to comply with city policy on hillside development.
2. Denied an application for revision of lots lines at 72 Yolanda Drive by M. R. Davalos, because the revision would result in either inadequate setbacks for the existing house or inadequate lot size for one of the lots. The existing house is on both lots.
3. Approved a lot split by E. H. and Gladys Duncan at 1332 San Anselmo Avenue, provided a sidewalk is built where the second lot faces Center Boulevard.

Tiburon Wants Aides Who Work Like Dogs

The City of Tiburon is looking for candidates for citizen planning advisers who, in the words of one man, have "integrity, enthusiasm and work like dogs."

The man is Robert L. Cook, hired by the city to guide citizen committees that will draw the broad outlines of the Tiburon of the future. Cook and Sydney H. Williams, whose firm is under four months contract to the city to provide planning advice, last night talked with the combined city council - planning commission on how the citizen group of 50 to 125 persons would be organized.

Councilmen and commissioners decided they would choose the members from persons they nominate and from volunteers who write to the city office at 1610 Tiburon Boulevard, stating their qualifications.

Applications were invited from residents throughout the Tiburon Peninsula, including Belvedere and the unincorporated portion.

The committee will be divided into sub-committees dealing with residential, commercial, industrial development, trafficways, schools, ways and means, waterfront, parks - recreation - open space, community appearance, community facilities, and community development.

The citizens will "stay away from platitudes," Williams hopefully told councilmen and commissioners.

Councilmen and commissioners agreed to a Jan. 4 deadline for volunnteers to write to the city. City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose, councilmen Leo. Souza and Anne L. Ellinwood, planning commissioners Helen B. Newman and Joseph C. Marshal will screen applications and city officials' nominations. The council and planning commission then will make their choices.

Councilmen Ask To Study Sanitary Area Annexation

The Tiburon City Council will ask the city of Belvedere to hold off on its request that Belvedere be annexed to the Tiburon Sanitary District.

Tiburon councilmen last night agreed they want to study the "long range effects" the annexation might have on Tiburon, saying the city might want to consider taking over functions of the sanitary district.

Tiburon is served primarily by the Tiburon district and partially by the Richardson Bay Sanitary District. Belvedere has its own sanitary system, but its sewage is treated by the Tiburon Sanitary District plant and Belvedere has asked the district to maintain city sewers under contract.

Belvedere has requested an opinion from the sanitary district on whether it would approve annexation if the city started procedures. The sanitary district has as yet given no answer.

Tiburon councilmen, meeting at Del Mar School, postponed to their next meeting, Jan. 11, a decision on whether to appoint councilmen as Liaison to the two sanitary districts, the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District, Tiburon Fire District and Reed School District.

The suggestion came from Councilman Fred C. Hannahs, who said there is a "lack of communication among the various other governing bodies in the area and the city."

The Tiburon city council also:

1. Adopted an ordinance approving annexation of areas of Lyford's Cove, Seafirth and an area near Paradise Cay to the Tiburon Fire District.
2. Approved preparation of an ordinance for council consideration which would require underground placement of utilities in new subdivisions.

Bert Balmer Given Raise To $15,250

Bert A. Balmer, city manager of Mill Valley, last night received a $1,000 pay raise to take effect Jan. 1.

The manager, who took over from A. E. Almcrants last Jan. 1 at a $12,500 annual wage, now receives $14,250. He will be hiked to $15,250.

The council was unanimous in approval, with Councilman George E. Wickham absent.

Councilman Albert E. White said Balmer is doing "an excellent administrative job." Mayor Michael Wornum declared that "a cheap administrator is an expensive luxury despite the fact the City of Alto says it will have no city manager."

White cited that Novato City Administrator J. Julien Baget receives $16,250 per year.

Councilman William M. Secor moved the raise be given.

BERT A. BALMER
Up another $1,000

Ross School Annex Plans Get Pruning

Ross School District trustees last night cut $25,000 off plans for additions and renovations to Ross School to bring the cost under $350,000, the sum allocated for the work.

The cuts, recommended by architect Martin Rosse and approved by the trustees, trimmed one classroom and two conference rooms from the plans. The conference rooms were to have been added to the administrative area of the school. The classroom was to have been converted from the present stage area and could still be built later when the need arises and the money is available. The classroom was not considered immediately essential to meet space needs.

The trustees decided that if any more cuts have to be made, the next thing to go would be $5,000 worth of lunchroom tables, which the school has done without for some time.

The $25,000 cut made at last night's special meeting bring the projected cost of the work to $348,000.

Sheriff Presses Hunt For Armed Robbers

The Marin County sheriff's office pressed its search today for four armed robbers who struck in two separate holdups early yesterday.

Sheriff's Inspector Marco M. cleared two suspects in the robbery of $890 from the Buckeye Restaurant north of Sausalito. They were two sailors stationed at Treasure Island who were interrogated in a parked car in Belvedere by Belvedere police about five hours after the holdup.

There was also a false lead in the search for the two suspects who heldup Dan's Groceries and Liquor at 254 Shoreline Highway in Tamalpais Valley where $500 was taken.

A clerk at Macy's in San Rafael called San Rafael police at 3:17 p.m. yesterday to say that she had under observation a man who looked like one of the suspects. (Sketches of the men were printed in yesterday's Independent-Journal.)

Sheriff's deputies, however, determined that the man was not one of the robbers.

The Liquor store holdup occured shortly after midnight. Two robbers arrived at the Buckeye about the same time, but the robbery was not discovered there until 35 minutes later.

Melovich said there appeared to be no connection between the two crimes. "It's just a coincidence that we should have two so close together," he said.

Tam High Trustees Blast Stalling On Unification

Tamalpais High School District trustees last night took out time to blast a "half dozen people" who are supposedly trying to stall unification of all school districts within its area.

"These people have no concern for any children except for those of their own district," charged Trustee Edmund J. Thomas. "This is utter selfishness."

Asst. Supt. Robert D. Torrey said the district has an incentive to have a vote on unification by the people before June 30. The incentive is a bonus of $15 a student by the state in those areas that vote for unification.

Representatives of Reed School District recently presented a petition calling for a two-district unification, making the area of Redwood High School a separate district.

Trustee James M. Stubblebine said any delaying tactic would be "pennywise and pound foolish." Thomas said he believed the opponents to one-district unification would seek changes in state legislation at the coming session of the legislature.

The board approved working drawings of outdoor athletic facilities at Tamalpais High School calling for bids on the project Jan. 14. The development would include major filling of low lands to form a new football field, baseball field, basketball courts, a track and additional parking. Cost is estimated at $200,000.

Also approved were working drawings for the $250,000 swimming pool project at Redwood High School. The plans were ordered forwarded to the State Division of Architecture for approval.

Special education teachers and counsellors gave a presentation to the board, with demonstrations in teaching lip reading and in teaching the blind and a discussion with three mentally retarded students who have graduated and found jobs.

Sausalito Wins Round In Case Of Duplex Error

An injunction is expected soon in the long-belabored case of the misplaced duplex in Sausalito.

Marin Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating has ruled in favor of the city, which asked that the duplex, extending 13 feet into the city right of way at 28 Cazneau Avenue, be moved.

The city sued Margy French and Evelyn Richards of Mill Valley and their firm, Randy Homes, Inc., builders of the duplex.

Testimony in the case lasted for two weeks before Judge Keating. He issued his decision last Friday.

Sausalito City Atty. Leland H. Jordan said today that the city must next submit findings to the court. Then the judge can issue the injunction.

Developer, City Share Study's Cost

The City of Tiburon and real estate developer Howard Eichen of Fullerton have agreed to share the costs of topographic and population studies for the area in which Eichen plans to construct 40 homes on 14 acres of Tiburon hillside.

Eichen's proposal was to have come before the Tiburon Planning Commission last night for a vote. The meeting, with the one item on its agenda, was callled off at the last minute.

After conferences with city officials, Eichen agreed to pay $1,200 as his part of planning studies which the city will conduct. John David Erickson, planning consultant to Tiburon, will consider some 100 acres of land, including Eichen's parcel at the end of Round Hill Road, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose said today.

Eichen's plans for his land now are scheduled to come before the planning commission on Jan. 25.

Tires Punctured

All four tires were punctured on a car parked at 355 Canal Street in San Rafael either Friday night or Saturday morning, owner James Pias of apartment 32 reported to police.

Denmark Expells 3 Polish Aides

COPENHAGEN (UPI) — Denmark expelled three Polish Embassy employees after American intelligence agents linked them with an anti-NATO spy plot, the Copenhagen newspaper Information said today.

The Danish Foreign Ministry disclosed that on Nov. 25 it had ordered Polish military attache Col. Henry Kuckowsky, file clerk Antoni Zagarowics and a chauffeur named Potowski to leave the country within five days for activities incompatible with their diplomatic mission.

It refused to comment on the report of the part played by the American agents in breaking up the alleged spy ring.

Lagunitas School Tax Vote Called

Voters in the Lagunitas School District will be asked March 9 to approve indefinite continuation of the present $2.65 general purpose tax rate per $100 assessed valuation.

The school board last night called for the special election to prevent the general purpose rate from automatically reverting June 30 to 90 cents per $100 assessed valuation, Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff said today.

Last year the district's voters approved a 65-cent tax rate increase for the 1964-65 school year only. A previous authorization for a $2 rate also expires at the end of this fiscal year.

"In order to maintain the present educational program at Lagunitas School, we need to have the $2.65 general purpose tax rate continued," McCunniff said.

The board asked bidders on school insurance contracts to resubmit proposals on insurance coverage at the Jan. 5 board meeting. Variations in amounts of coverage prevented the board from awarding the contract last night, McCunniff said.

Injured In Crash

Le Roy W. Kennedy, 30, of Santa Rosa, was treated for bruises on his left leg and face this morning at Marin General Hospital after his northbound car skidded into the center strip divider fence on Highway 101, 350 feet north of the Corte Madera overpass at 2:05 a.m.

Corte Madera Slope Law Adopted, Little Protest

The Corte Madera Town Council last night formally adopted its tough slope conservation policy without comment. The vote was unanimous.

Earlier in the meeting, Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow said he saw no need for changes in the draft as presented to the council earlier.

At that time W. A. (Barney) Trumbull, owner of hillside land and major opponent to the ordinance, said he still felt the ordinance was unconstitutional. "You'd better talk with your attorney before this is passed," he warned.

Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis, who helped draft the ordinance, sat silent. Mayor Edward W. Colthurst told Trumbull to wait until the formal motion for passage to give his arguments. When that time came, Trumbull was silent.

The ordinance requires lot sizes to be increased with steepness of the slopes, the maximum lot that can be required being one acre.

It also severely restricts cutting of trees on hillsides, requiring specific city approval for cutting any tree with a trunk diameter of more than three inches in many cases. Also restricted is the amount of land that can be cleared on a lot. There is a requirement that foliage be replaced.

At a previous council meeting, Jerry Rubin, president of the Christmas Tree Hill Dwellers Assn., asked for tougher restrictions to protect drainage ways, but these were turned down. Rubin was also present and silent last night.

The Corte Madera Town Council Also:

1. Continued until Jan. 4 consideration of a sidewalk assessment district along Paradise Drive near Highway 101, because Davis, who has been ill, had not prepared a written opinion on procedures for forcing an assessment district formation in spite of protests.
2. Approved a resolution based on one passed by the Novato City Council prohibiting use of assessment districts to provide streets and utilities for new subdivisions.
3. Approved the county park and recreation plan in principle, except for the proposed golf course on tidal lands zoned by the city for industrial use.
4. Set back the date for opening of bids for the Public Safety Building from Jan. 4 to Jan. 7.
5. Heard a program schedule for drawing plans for remodeling the Town Hall, with the prospect bids could be called next July.
6. Agreed to purchase a third police car with California Highway Patrol specifications.

Meeting Cancelled

The December meeting of the Corte Madera Park and Recreation commission, originally scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, has been cancelled because of lack of agenda items.

ExDefense Aide Pleads Innocent

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Three former Defense Department officials pleaded innocent today to charges of embezzling more than $57,000 in government funds.

The three, including a former administrative assistant to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, were released under $5,000 bond each. U.S. District Judge Oren Lewis set next March 29 for trial.

The former McNamara aide is James Robert Loftis Jr., 52. The others are William H. Godel, 43, former deputy director for management in the department's Advanced Research Projects Agency, and John A. Wylie, 57, former head of the budget and finance branch in the department's administrative office.

Wolfe Grade School Road Plans Scrapped

The Kentfield School District board last night scrapped plans for a temporary gravel road to Wolfe Grade School from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, and voted to re-open negotiations with the county on extending Wolfe Grade.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon said there had been in the past an agreement with the county that if the school district built an extension to Wolfe Grade at county standards, the county would revise the signals at the Sir Francis Drake Boulevard-Wolfe Grade intersection.

Amazing Johnny Longden Still Sharp, Enthusiastic

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—"Any success I've had came because I kept my nose to the grindstone," said jockey Johnny Longden, the world's oldest active athlete. "I have lived a clean life, worked hard and learned something every day."

Longden, now 57 years young and still going strong on the major race tracks of America, was honored yesterday at Bay Meadows after completing his 31,463rd ride.

But the statement above wasn't made yesterday. It was made 16 years ago, in 1948, during an interview with this writer.

At the time he was 41 years old—and already dodging questions about retirement.

"I'll know in another year or so," he said at the time. "My wife and I plan to take a trip around the world when I retire."

It's 16 years later, 1964, with the big 1965 Santa Anita season coming up soon—and old John still is going strong.

He is a millionaire many times over. But he rides every race as eagerly as an apprentice going out for his first win.

Twenty years ago they were referring to Johnny as the "old man" in the jockey colonies. Today there is no such mention. He's just another one of the boys. So great that he is admired by all — including the brilliant Willie Shoemaker, who wasn't even born when Longden rode his first winner in 1927 at Salt Lake City.

"How can that guy maintain his near-perfect condition, his reflexes, his enthusiasm?" asked Shoemaker. "He's still as good as any rider in the business."

Horrible, rainy weather subdued the ceremonies to honor Johnny yesterday. Master of ceremonies Jimmy Durante was unable to attend because of illnesses in his family. Former State Senator Tom Maloney, who with the late William P. Kyne co-authored the pari-mutuel racing bill in this state, presented Longden with an engraved clock at the ceremonies.

It didn't seem like much of a present. But Johnny appreciated it as much as if it had been a Kentucky Derby winner.

"We wanted to give him a color television set," said President Joe Cohen of Bay Meadows. "But his wife told us that he already had a TV set in every room in the house, plus one in the back seat of his car."

Longden, as everyone interested in hoss racing knows, holds the world record for riding winners. He has been in the winner's circle 5,911 times. Eight times he has won purses totaling more than $1,000,000 in a year. His over-all total in purses won is more than $23,777,000.

His only concession to advancing age is that he has cut down the number of horses he rides each year—he claims. In his biggest years, 1947 to 1952, he rode more than 1,000 mounts every year. In 1964 he trimmed this all the way down to 970—170 M-O-R-E than he rode in 1963!

His idea of the best horse he ever rode hasn't changed. In 1948 he said it was Count Fleet. Today he says the same thing. But he rates Noor, whom he rode to victory over Citation in four out of five meetings, as a close second.

The biggest pay-off he ever received for riding a winner was $18,000—aboard Count Fleet, of course.

For two decades now, most of Johnny's riding has been on the West Coast, near his Los Angeles home. And during that time he has been the object of the boo-birds. They razz him unmercifully when he fails to bring home a favorite in front.

"But that doesn't bother me," he philosophizes. "It's when they start to ignore me completely that I'll have to start worrying."

New Blood Has To Be Found For The 49ers' Poor Offensive Team

Randol

Combine the National Football League all-star selections and the final tabulation of statistics and you begin to get a better picture of the recently completed season. The San Francisco 49ers were anything but scintillating, and that is an understatement.

Captain Matt Hazeltine was the sole 49er representative out of the 40-odd men who played for Coach Jack Christsiansen this year. Matt did his usual fine job, but we have to remember that he is the "old man" of the club completing his tenth year of pro ball.

IN THE STATISTICAL department you might as well not try to locate any outstanding performances. You won't find any. The closest thing to a steady showing was the punting of Tommy Davis, and that is strictly a defensive maneuver.

Even Abe Woodson failed to get in the top brackets this year as a punt and kickoff return specialist. Abe has been tops in this department in past years, but this past season he often played as if he didn't care or it wasn't worth the effort.

A MODERN pro team lives or dies by its pass completion record. John Brodie and George Mira threw a lot of balls but more hit the dirt than the receivers.

Off the record, the 49ers showed improvement by winning four games and being close in a half dozen more. We tend to forget that it is possibly true that some of those games were close only because the opposition did not take the Niners seriously as threats. Scores are a poor judge of the value of a team.

Nope. No matter which way you look you have to come back to the Niner offense—or rather the lack of offense—for the basic cause of such a poor showing.

CERTAINLY YOU can't fault the defense. That gang usually hung in there until they were so pooped they couldn't pop any more. With an offense that couldn't control the ball, the defense often became discouraged or too tired to operate at full efficiency.

To be more specific in picking the offense apart, the only man in the offensive line who earned his keep has to be left guard John Thomas. The other guards, centers and tackles just don't cut it. Not too many people realize that Thomas is already on the 49er all-time all-star team as a tackle.

As a guard, Thomas has done everything asked of him, but he can't do it all. He has suffered undeserved abuse this year by being grouped with the men around him.

OF COURSE the Niner backfield would seem to be only mediocre, but it is unfair to judge this group poor when they had no opportunity to move with good blocking ahead of them.

This is a young team, but it will have to be younger still before it moves. Perhaps some of the old timers can serve as short time replacements, but strong new blood has to be found somewhere or 1965 will be another long year.

USF Slips In Nat'l Cage Poll

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan's mighty Wolverines, bounced out of the No. 1 spot last week, bounced right back in again on the spectacular play of the man who went to Michigan to do just that — make them No. 1.

The Wolverines, who beat Wichita 87-85 in their only outing last week, were named first on 28 of the 42 ballots cast by a national panel of sports writers and regained the top spot among the nation's collegiate basketball teams today.

Michigan polled 387 points on the basis of 10 for a first place vote, nine for second, eight for third, and so on. Wichita, which had replaced Michigan as No. 1 in last week's poll, slipped back to second with five first place votes and 317 points.

There was a general shuffling of the top 10, with only sixth-ranked Duke remaining in the same position.

Unbeaten Minnesota and once-beaten UCLA and St. Louis all moved up one spot, to third, fourth and ninth, respectively. San Francisco, unbeaten at 5-0, slipped two spots to fifth while three new comers Illinois, Indiana and Davidson — moved into the top ten replacing St. John's, N.Y., Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

Cazzie Russell's 25-foot jump shot just before the buzzer was the difference for Michigan in the Wolverine's important triumph over Wichita.

Wolverine coach Dave Strack calls him one of the finest players in the country, "the best I've coached," and told a story about how Cazzie came to Michigan.

"Four years ago we had a 6-18 season, which isn't over-powering. Cazzie told me about it later. He was quite sincere about it. He was a high school boy at the time and watched our games on TV.

"He said last year he decided to come to Michigan then, as a school boy, because he figured we needed help. It was one of the biggest breaks of my coaching career," Strack said Monday.

San Francisco won two and remained unbeaten, but the voters apparently weren't impressed with the Dons' 75-73 exhibition decision over the Sub-Pac Raiders in Honolulu and a 95-72 rout of Hawaii, and they slipped two spots.

Defending national champion UCLA moved up one with its fourth and fifth straight victories after an opening loss. The Bruins whipped Marquette 61-52, then stopped Boston College 115-93 in winning the Milwaukee Holiday Classic.

Bears, Gaels, Broncos Lose; Bruins Face 'Test' Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although it's a non-conference game, the contest tonight between UCLA and Southern California could provide a preview of the Pacific Athletic Conference basketball campaign.

The UCLA Bruins, defending NCAA champs and heavy favorite to recapture the PAC crown, normally expect and get a lot of trouble from the Trojans. The two squads don't meet in conference competition until March 5 and 6, but they could play again next week in the Los Angeles Classic tourney.

Stanford and Oregon, two other PAC schools, also meet tonight in a non-league clash in Eugene, Ore.

California tries again at Nebraska after losing last night 87-80 to the Huskers. Dan Wolthers, with 21 points, led the losing Bears. But Nebraska's Fred Hare, with 23 points, and Nate Branch, with 24 were too much for California.

In other Monday contests involving West Coast teams, Oregon lost 92-58 to Kansas State, San Jose State was dumped by Utah State 86-73, Boston College trimmed St. Mary's 78-62, winless Santa Clara scared unbeaten Utah before losing 87-83, and Seattle downed Memphis State 89-77.

Fresno State defeated Nevada 91-68, Southern California College beat the Cal Aggies, 67-66, Texas Western humbled Hayward State 68-35, Chico State edged U.C., Riverside 85-79 and Humboldt State turned back Southern Oregon 72-59 in the first of a two-game series that ends tonight.

Wayne Estes scored 33 points for Utah State against San Jose. The Spartans gave the winning Aggies trouble. The Spartans led at half 38-36.

Three Santa Clara players hit 14 points each and Mike Gervasoni chipped in 19 as the Broncos almost pulled off a major upset of Utah.

St. Mary's was doing all right against Boston College until Jim Reames was thrown out of the game in the second half for fighting. He still managed to finish with 19 points for game honors. Boston's John Austin, the Eagles' high scorer, couldn't play because of an injured wrist.

PRO GRID CONTRACTS

Utah Flash Signs With The Steelers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers announced today they have received a signed contract from Roy Jefferson, Utah's flashy pass-catching end.

The 6-foot-1, 195-pound Jefferson, who also plays halfback, was the Steelers' first choice in the National Football League draft. The Steelers didn't pick him until the second round of the draft because they had traded away their first turn.

He was the No. 2 choice of the San Diego Chargers in the rival American Football League.

A Steelers' spokesman said Jefferson agreed to terms after Utah's victory over West Virginia in the Liberty Bowl last Saturday and returned a signed contract Monday. Jefferson suffered an apparent shoulder separation in the Liberty Bowl game and is unable to play in the East-West game in San Francisco Jan. 2.

Jefferson was Utah's top scorer during all three of his college seasons. He scored a total of 131 points during his college career, tying a Utah record. His college records show that he caught 70 passes for 1,166 yards and nine touchdowns.

The New York Giants have beaten their crosstown rivals, the New York Jets, for the second time in pro football's signing derby.

The National League Giants announced the signing of Frank Lambert, the Mississippi punter who led the nation's major college kickers with a 44.1 average this season.

Lambert was the Giants' fifth draft pick and was selected No. 10 by the Jets in the American League draft. Earlier, the Giants had signed Pitt linebacker Ray Popp, who was drafted by both New York teams as a future last year.

In Monday's other signings, the NFL picked up two players and the AFL one.

Green Bay signed its third round draft pick, Allen Brown, a tight end from Mississippi. Brown, 6-foot-4 and 230 also was a third round choice of the San Diego Chargers in the AFL draft.

The Minnesota Vikings inked Mike Tilleman, a 260-pound defensive tackle from Montana State University, who was drafted in the 12th round as a future. Tilleman was selected by Denver of the AFL.

Nomination For Filly Of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Mergler, who trains the Tim Tam-Cosmah filly Tosmah, thinks Anthony Imbesi's 3-year-old standout "should be filly horse of the year."

When she won the $80,859 Beldame at Aqueduct at odds of 1 to 2, she beat Miss Cavandish and Castle Forbes, two other successful fillies. It was her fifth straight stakes race at Aqueduct in two years.

DUCKS SPOIL SPEED TRY BY CAMPBELL

PERTH, Australia (AP) — Ducks, hundreds of them, prevented Donald Campbell, the British speed ace, from giving his Bluebird an all-out tryout at Lake Dumbleyung today.

Flocks of wild ducks flew overhead as Campbell gunned his powerful craft to 150 miles per hour. Some of the birds darted to within a few feet of the boat.

Campbell muttered through his microphone at one stage.

"I'm touching 150 now," he said. "Ducks all over the place. One just missed me. I'll need machineguns to beat them off."

After the run Campbell said any further high speed runs would be impossible until something could be done about the ducks. He said he planned to consult experts.

He is attempting to break his own world water speed record of 260.3 m.p.h. which he set on Lake Coniston, England, May 14, 1959.

St. Helena's Davis Named North Coach

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—George Davis of St. Helena High School and Collie Kidwell of Mountain View High today were named co-coaches of the Northern California All-Star football team in the 14th annual Shrine North-South football game.

Selection of the Northern coaches for the July 29, 1965, game at Los Angeles Memorial Colliseum was announced by game director Elmer P. Bromley.

Davis, 38, has not lost a game in five years at St. Helena High as head coach, a winning streak of 45 games. He attended University of Southern California and played on the 1945 Rose Bowl team.

No TV Blackout But Ducats Gone

The 40th East-West Shrine football game is "so sold out it's murder."

Ticket man Art Samuels thus described the situation yesterday concerning the Jan. 2 contest in Kezar Stadium, San Francisco.

Game director Bill Coffman, one of the youngest 81-year-old men around, said he had never known the game to sell out so quickly since it was first televised. The game will not be blacked out locally because a packed house of 60,000-plus is assured.

Even Coffman could not quite figure out why the fight for tickets this time around was fiercer than usual. "It's not easy to say why this 1965 game should be a runaway sale. We've had great squads in the past . . . but whatever it is, I love it."

But there seemed little doubt that quarterbacks draw the fans and this year's game is especially loaded in that department. The East has Navy's Roger Staubach and the West has California's Craig Morton and Oregon's Bob Berry.

Morton and Berry will have receivers such as Jack Schraub of California, Larry Elkins of of Baylor, Fred Hill of USC and halfback Gale Sayers of Kansas to toss to. But the West coaching staff, headed by USC's Johnny McKay must still pick a replacement for Utah end Roy Jefferson, who was knocked out of action with a shoulder separation in last Saturday's Liberty Bowl.

West coaches are expected to name a replacement in a day or two. Their problem is compounded by the fact that Jefferson was expected to handle the place-kicking for the Westerners.

Ex-Colgate coach Andy Kerr, who still shows up here annually as an advisory coach for the East Squad, is not so sure that Navy's Staubach will pilot the East squad.

He put a in plug for Pittsburgh's 190-pound Fred Mazurek yesterday. "he's a top quality quarterback," Kerr said.

Head East coach Pete Elliott of Illinois praised his own defensive back George Donnelly. local fans are interested in the defensive specialist since the 49ers have signed him.

Anglers Should Wait Five Days After The Rains For Steelhead

STEVENS

I know some of you folks have a yen to do battle with a steelhead and are awaiting the word. Sorry, but that word won't come from me. By checking with the weather bureau, I knew there was a mighty slim chance of various coastal streams becoming fishable in the next few days. To make certain, however, I talked to Clare Titus in Point Arena. "Well, Ralph, it has been raining for two or three days, and it's raining right now. Of course the Garcia and all rivers along the Mendocino Coast are high and muddy."

SO THERE you are. An optimist might say three days AFTER the rain has stopped the Garcia might be fishable, but a pessimist might say, the Garcia and maybe the Ten Mile rivers return to normal four or five days after the rains stop. But you would be wiser to wait for five days after the last rain for any half-way decent chance to catch steelhead.

Understand, please, after the streams have become muddy from the surface run-off on the main and tributary streams, the length of time to return to normal is much less. In the case of the Garcia, Gualala and the Fort Bragg streams, very often they clear and lower as soon as three days after the last rain.

I HAVE BEEN asked several times about reservations at the hotels and motels along the coast. If you have kept track of the weather for three to five days after the rains, the prospects look fairly bright. The making of a reservation is a very sensible thing to do. Personally, I like to stay in Point Arena at the hotel owned by Ernie and Clare Titus. From that town it is a very short drive to the Gualala, the Garcia and the Navarro. The Garcia River never becomes bar-bound, and it is also the quickest to become fishable after the rains have raised and muddied it. Incidentally, I might add that the Russian River usually takes one or two days longer to return to normal.

GETTING BACK to that reservation business: If you would make the hotel owned by the Tituses your headquarters, call Clare or Ernie Titus at home at the hotel. You can bank on any report made by Clare or Ernie Titus. I suggest you be ready to make a deposit on a room if asked to do so. (There have been too many cancellations—or I should say, too many sportsmen who have made reservation for a certain day, but have never showed up).

Remember—when your favorite stream becomes normal, i.e.: when the color fades to a milky appearance, your best bet is roe-berries. When the stream is almost clear, try spoons, flies or flatfish or similar lures. When the river is low and crystal clear, that is the time to catch steelhead the hard way—on artificial flies.

LIONS OWNER TINKERS WITH HIS COSTLY TOY

DETROIT (UPI) — Once again auto scion William Clay Ford has tinkered with his $6.5-million toy—more popularly referred to as the Detroit Lions Football Co.

In his second regal decree yesterday, Ford announced the firing of assistant coaches Don Doll, Les Bingaman, Bob Nussbaumer, Sonny Grandelius and Aldo Forte. Then, he met with one of his remaining subjects, head coaoch George Wilson, and made a proposal—Wilson could join his aides as members of the unemployed, or he could find five new assistants and continue as the ex-officio chief-of-staff for an indefinite period.

Wilson, being 50 years old, the father of five children and not independently wealthy, selected the latter option.

The 39-year-old Ford, who is vice president of product, planning and styling for the Ford Motor Co., said he and Wilson would meet at a later date to discuss terms of the new pact. He added that "indefinite period" meant "more than a year," but refused to say whether Wilson would receive an increase in pay or a multi-season contract.

Wilson's present three-year agreement, which carries a $45,000 salary per annum, doesn't expire until after the 1965 season. The five assistants also had contracts extending through next year and will be paid in full.

It had been rumored for two days that Ford would fire Nussbaumer, Bingaman and Doll because players complained to about the caliber of tutoring they were receiving. However, he denied this was the sole reason for his putting the five men out of a job.

He also denied that his successful initial change in command prompted his second alteration. After taking complete control in January he reorganized a mediocre scouting system. Aided by new freedom in check writing as much as reorganization, Detroit scouts signed five of the top six collegiate draft picks.

Ford added that Wilson would have "complete freedom" in picking his new assistants. However, it's known that Ford favors some veteran Detroit players for the vacant coaching duties. It's been rumored that middle linebacker Joe Schmidt will be offered the defense line job and safety Yale Lary the defensive backfield position.

Wilson said he isn't in a hurry to hire new aides. When asked if some of the new coaches would come from the ranks of the present 40-man team, Wilson answered: "That's a possibility."

Ford's sacking of the five assistants is unique in that Wilson, the man responsible for the entire coaching operation, survived the purge. Usually if a change in command is ordered, a head coach is dismissed along with all or some of his assistantst.

Last Series Win For Ford Was Against Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Whitey Ford, whose 10 victories are the most ever won by a World series pitcher, came into the Cardinal series in fine shape. He had allowed but three runs in his last 16 innings of pitching and had allowed no hits in his last seven innings of American League pitching.

But in the opening game of the series here gave eight hits and five runs in 5 1-3 innings. It was his eight loss in series competition and his fourth straight. His last Series victory came in the 1962 opener when he beat the Giants, 6-2, in San Francisco. He has failed to win a series game in his last five starts.

Return Of Free Sub Rule Heads List In Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Almost anything the college football players can do, the professionals can do better. And this applies, too, to the rules-makers in the opinion of the majority of the writers and broadcasters participating in an Associated Press poll.

The return of free substitution and of the goal posts to the goal line, the latter to stimulate additional field goal attempts, placed highest on the list of suggested rule changes for the 1965 college campaign. Both regulations are in force in professional football.

A total of 106 voters favored the return of unlimited substitutions. Thirty-one called for the elimination of the five-yard delay of game or intentional offside penalties to make platoon substitutes.

The college rules-makers last January voted to permit the entry of two wild card subs — specialists such as kickers — on any down and free substitutions whenever the clock was stopped.

Many of those participating in the AP poll cited what they termed "the hypocrisy of the custom of taking intentional penalties to stop the clock and substitute a platoon." The unlimited substitution regulation was abandoned.

Sixty-five voters advocated the adoption of other pro rules by the colleges, including 43 for the return of the goal posts to the goal line. Nine favored a change in the rule that would enable a ball carrier to continue running after he had slipped to his knees or fallen without being tackled. Eight others said the defensive team should be permitted to advance a fumbled ball.

Other suggested changes included sudden death overtimes to avoid tie games, the elimination of face masks and nose guards and increasing the value of a touchdown from six to seven points.

College Cage Games Slated On Channel 2

KTVU, Channel 2, will add another series of sports contests to its schedule in 1965 with a nine-week lineup of live Saturday afternoon Athletic Assn. of Western Universities (AAWU) basketball games.

Game time each week, beginning Jan. 9, is 3 p.m. Telecasts will originate from each home school gymnasium, up and down the Pacific Coast. Frank Sims, veteran sports announcer, will handle the play-by-play.

Producer for the series is Sports Network Inc. The schedule:

Jan. 9 — University of Washington at Stanford; Jan. 16—Oregon State at Washington State; Jan. 23 — University of Oregon at Washington State; Jan. 30 — University of Oregon at Oregon State; Feb. 6—California at University of Oregon; Feb. 13 — Southern California at University of Washington; Feb. 20 — Stanford at Washington State; Feb. 27 — UCLA at University of California at Stanford.

Warriors' Wilt Still Fastest Gun In West

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain was a 7-foot-1 Lone Ranger for the San Francisco Warriors long before he put on his mask. But the fastest gun in the National Basketball Association could use a little help.

While Chamberlain, wearing a mask to protect a broken nose, added to his league-leading point total last week, the Warriors dropped three of five games and remained bogged down in the Western Division cellar.

Wilt hit for 215 points in the five games, including a week-high of 58 against New York, and became the first 1,000-point scorer of the season. He has 1,091 in 28 games for a 39.0 average.

The Big Dipper also has the best per-game mark in rebounds, 23.8, though he trails Boston's Bill Russell 741-666 in total retrieves. Russell has played in five more games than Chamberlain. Jerry Lucas of Cincinnati, with 634 rebounds in 27 games, is third.

Jerry West continues to chase Chamberlain in the scoring race. The Los Angeles star has 933 points and a 30.1 average. Sam Jones of the Celtics has moved past Baltimore's Walt Bellamy into third position. Oscar Robertson of the Royals Completes the top five.

Robertson holds a 297-231 edge over the Warriors' Guy Rodgers in assists, with the Celtics' K.C. Jones third and West and Russell tied for fourth.

Terry Dischinger of Detroit and Cincinnati's Adrian Smith held their respective leads in field goal and free throw accuracy. Dischinger has a .508 mark from the floor, to .504 for runner-up West. Smith has missed only 10 of 118 foul shots for a .915 mark. Larry Costello of Philadelphia, with an .875 percentage, is second.

The leading scorers:

Warriors In Sacramento Tilt Tonight

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors begin a three - week road trip tonight when they meet the New York Knickerbockers in Sacramento Civic Auditorium.

Both teams are at the bottom of their respective divisions in the National Basketball Association.

Before returning to San Francisco Jan. 8 to meet the Boston Celtics, the Warriors have two games each with New York, and Baltimore, one with Philadelphia at Syracuse, and single games with Los Angeles, Cincinnati, and Los Angeles.

The Warriors have a 3-1 record against the Knicks going into tonight's game. In their last meeting the Warriors took a 134-132 decision in New York.

Donald Watson Is New Commodore

Donald Watson has succeeded Cletus J. Traverse as commodore of the Marin Yacht Club.

One of the first orders of business carried out by Watson was to appoint a development and finance committee to hire an architect for the proposed clubhouse and berthing facilities on Beale Island, site of the new Marin club.

Vice commodore Eugene Sweeney is chairman of the committee that includes Tom Boyd, Bruce Wilson and Charles McPherson. The club is maintaining its present facilities and is in the process of placing 15 new floats for use by the growing membership.

A POPCORN hospitality wreath for hanging over the mantle or near the front door is an excellent way for hostess to say "Merry Christmas" in a special way because every guest may take a bit of it home.

YUMMY, TOO

· Popcorn Decorations Invite Holiday Hospitality

Christmas time is surely the season of the year when warmth and hospitality are at their high point. For the hostess whose job it is to decorate her home to match this gay and wondrous time, there's nothing like a merry popcorn wreath to hang over the mantle or near the front door to greet folks as they come calling.

The wreath is made of sweet popcorn balls, wrapped in saran and tied to a circular straw mat. Add your biggest, brighest bow to the wreath and invite folks over to snip off a popcorn ball for themselves with a tiny scissor hung from this edible wall decoration. You can replenish the wreath after each party so that it is ready for the next group of merrymakers visiting your home.

POPCORN HOSPITALITY WREATH

4 quarts unsalted popcorn
2 cups granulated sugar
1½ cups water
½ cup light corn syrup
1 teaspoon vinegar
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon salt
Saran wrap
Circular straw mat
String
Ribbon
Scissor

Place popcorn in a large buttered bowl. Combine sugar, water, corn syrup, vinegar, vanilla and salt in saucepan. Bring to boiling point, stirring until sugar melts. Cook slowly until syrup reaches the hard ball stage (250 degrees). Pour syrup in fine stream over popcorn; mix just until popcorn is evenly coated.

Butter hands and quickly mold popcorn into small balls. Wrap each popcorn ball in saran wrap and tie on circular straw mat or wire frame, to cover. Decorate with ribbon bow. Attach scissor with long piece of ribbon.

HOLIDAY TIME is fun time and, in many parts of the country, it is snow time too. A Snow Lady, made with a popcorn-marshmallow mixture, will sit gaily on a table or a mantle. A Popcorn Snowball, from which small popcorn-syrup balls can be plucked, will be an enticing treat for eager young eaters.

The popcorn comes in its own foil frypan and while marshmallow mixture melts or the syrup cooks, the popcorn can be popped in a jiffy. Then the popped corn and mixtures are combined and formed into the desired shapes. These will be happy holiday additions to your own home or make gifts for friends.

POPCORN-MARSHMALLOW BALLS

1 package ready-to-pop corn
⅓ cup butter or margarine
10 ozs. marshmallows
¼ teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon almond extract

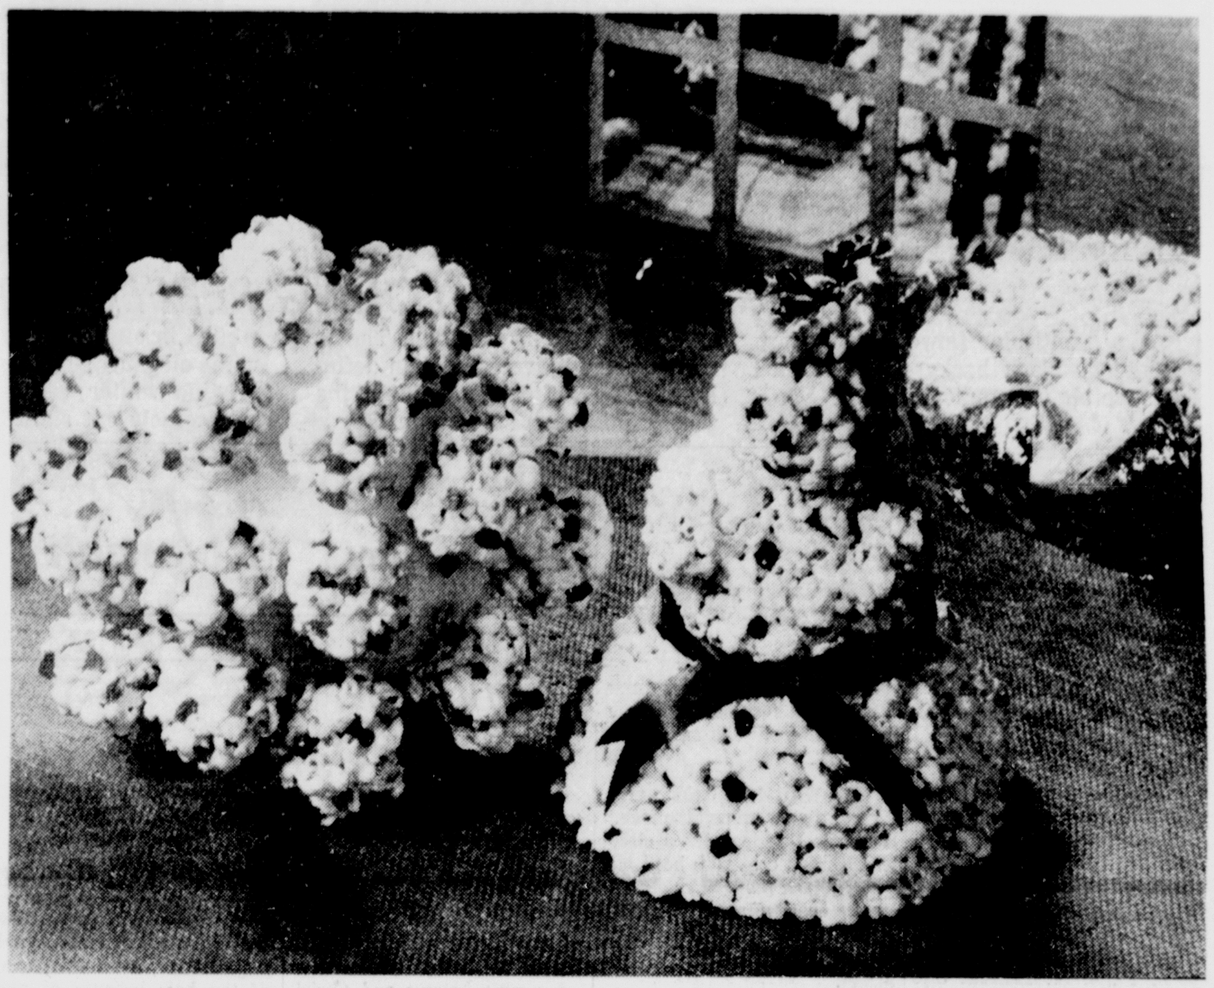
Pop corn according to package directions. Place in a large mixing bowl. Melt butter in saucepan. Add marshmallows. Cover and place over hot, not boiling, water. Heat until marshmallows are melted. Stir in vanilla, and almond extracts and mix well. Pour mixture over popcorn, stirring until popcorn is well coated with mixture. Let stand for 5 minutes before forming into balls or decorative shapes.

TO MAKE SNOW LADY

Form mixture into 5" x 5" ball, a 3" x 3" ball, and a 1½" x 1½" ball, a 2" flat circle, and 2, 2½" strips. To assemble the lady, use the large ball for lower part of lady, the 3" for top of lady, and 1½" ball for head. Top it with the circle for a hat. Attach the two strips for arms. Decorate by making a face with pieces of candied cherries, buttons down the front with red hots and a red ribbon around the waist for a belt. Top the hat with a sprig of holly.

TO MAKE SNOW BALL:

Shape the popcorn marshmallow mixture into 2" balls (Makes about 36). Insert toothpick in each ball, and decorate the balls with small pieces of candied cherries. Set aside for several hours. Then insert toothpicks into 6" styrofoam ball.



TWO OTHER enchanting decorations of popcorn are a Snow Lady and Popcorn Snowball. The Snow Lady, made of a popcorn-marshmallow mixture, will sit gaily on a mantel or end table and the Popcorn Snowball, from which small popcorn-syrup balls can be plucked, will attract young eaters.

New Style Ideas For Indian Saris

NEW YORK (AP) — Hardly a woman exists who can resist the beauty of those shimmering six-yard lengths of opulent gold or silver bordered cottons called saris.

That accounts for the thousands of yards of these fabric treasures alone purchased at India's Pavilion at the World's Fair this year. Add to that those brought home in tourist baggage from the East.

Yet few women have the courage or the know-how to drape and tuck these around draw string petticoats and wear them with the poise and carriage of an Eastern Woman.

Even fewer women are willing to sacrifice these garments to western styling. Somehow these patterns do not do justice to this rich cloth.

At least that was the story until Parsons School of Design gave its senior design class the challenge of turning these Indian saris into American fashion.

The Handicrafts and Handlooms Exports Corporation of India furnished saris to the best of 150 students submitting original sketches for sari-made resortwear. With these they turned out the finished product.

Some of the America's best known designers—Norman Norell, Adele Simpson, Geoffry Beane, John Moore and Donald Brooks—were called in to pick the winners.

First prize winner was Carol Friedland, 21, Great Neck, Long Island. She cut the strawberry pink portion of her sari for the wide-sleeved blouson top of a cocktail dress. The remaining leaf-green silk and embroidered gold borders were worked into a striped effect for the skirt.

Second prize winner was Tina Stubelek, 20, Southampton, Long Island. She fashioned her shimmering fuchsia sari into a slinky formal gown buttoned down the front. The sari's gold borders outlined the dress's huge hood, plunging neckline, and knee-to-ground skirt slit.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Black Tie Party On Birthday

By MOLLY MARIN

Sentiment graced the occasion as close friends from Marin and San Francisco gathered Friday evening when "Warden" Clinton Duffy and son, Dr. John C. Duffy of New York co-hosted a black tie dinner party at the Fairmont Hotel honoring Gladys on "a special birthday."

Ice sculpture centered the hors d'oeuvres table in the Green Room as the group gathered for cocktails. Against the backdrop of a decorated tree, Christmas epergnes and candleabra adorned the table in the Garden Room with Clint at one end and Gladys and Jack at the other.

ONE OF THE guests, Mrs. Ludwig Schaefer of New Jersey flew to San Francisco for the occasion. Other guests included Msgr. Matthew Connolly, Mesdames Lewis Hedge, Leo Ihle, Lewis Kerlin, Norman Sutherland, Dr. Don Jose Aubertine, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Herz, Messrs. and Mesdames Don Albertsen, Frank Boileau, Robert Byard, Forrest Brown, Lee Brillhart, William Dawson, Fred Figone, Cletus Fitzharris, Albert Goodwin, M. S. Lester, Wallace Myers, Lloyd Smith, Charles White and Frank Whitehead.

THE DUFFYS plan to lease their home early in the year and will spend some weeks touring the East and visiting Jack whose home is in White Plains, New York. Then, in April, they will leave for Europe, flying first to Shannon, for two weeks in Ireland. They will pick up a car on the Continent and spend the rest of the year in Europe, celebrating next Christmas in Spain.

A DIFFERENT holiday party was given last night when the Kenneth Frosts of Belvedere entertained their son, Ken, at a "Frosty Fiesta" at El Borro in Tiburon. Ken, a junior at Indiana University, is home for the Christmas vacation. The Frosts's younger son, Tim, who returned from a year in Germany as an exchange student this fall, assisted his parents and brother in greeting 40 guests. The South of the Border theme was carried out in the Mexican cuisine, guitar music and a pinata.

MR. AND MRS. Stephen Dimitroff, who recently moved from Mill Valley to Oregon, are spending the holidays in New York, where Mrs. Dimitroff — Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff — is repairing fresco murals by Diego Rivera.

While there they heard their daughter, Sita, sing the soprano part of her grandfather Ernest Bloch's "Sacred Service" at Carnegie Hall in New York City. She sang in the performance on Dec. 19 under the direction of the young conductor Abraham Kaplan and the Collegiate Chorale.

Sita has been a full time student this past year at the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

ENTERTAINING the past two Sundays at brunches in their Beach Road home in Belvedere were the Donald M. Bekins. A "partridge in a pear tree" decorated the entrance and the deck featured a Scotch pine tree decorated with gold and blue ornaments tied with lime green bows. Marinites attending include Messrs. and Mesdames Wellington Henderson, Robert Daugherty, Thomas Belshe, Thomas Kearney and Mr. Claude Ganz.

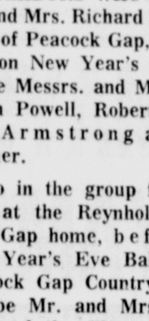
NEIGHBORS WHO will join Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Reynholds of Peacock Gap, San Rafael, on New Year's Eve will be the Messrs. and Mesdames John Powell, Robert Young, John Armstrong and Jack Zimmer.

Also in the group for cocktails at the Reynholds' Peacock Gap home, before the New Year's Eve Ball at the Peacock Gap Country Club, will be Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winn, of the Glenwood area.

THE STANLEY P. Lynotts will entertain at an eggnog party on Christmas afternoon at their home in Sleepy Hollow from 4 o'clock to 7 p.m.

HOUSEGUESTS of the Richard D. Reynholds of Peacock Gap, San Rafael, during the holidays will be their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jarecki of Pasadena.

On the Sunday after Christmas the Reynholds will journey to Chico for the christening of their third grandson, Glenn Reynholds, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Reynholds Jr. of Chico.



THE DICK FORDS of Mill Valley and their two daughters, Deneen and Jeannde will be spending Christmas at Yosemite, where they are putting on a dance program at Yosemite Lodge and the Ahwahnee Hotel.

Afterward Dick and Marguerite will go to Honolulu to celebrate New Year's and their 14th wedding anniversary. Also there will be Marguerite's relatives, the Floyd Gilmans of Ross and George Whitneys of Tiburon and their families.

Carol Knoke Plans To Wed On Jan. 22

An engagement and Christmas party was the occasion for the announcement of the engagement of Carol Ann Knoke and Charles Scott Landram.

Carol is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Dunn Knoke of Berkeley and Kurt W. Knoke of Walnut Creek. She attended the University of Oregon and is presently attending the University of California.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Landram of San Francisco, formerly of San Anselmo, and the brother of Mrs. Norman Peters of South Bend, Ind., and Mrs. Peter Roepke of Fresno.

He was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School, Marin College and University of California where he was a member of Phi Betta Kappa. He is a teaching assistant at the University of California.

A Jan. 22 wedding is planned at St. John's Epsicopal Church in Ross after which the couple will reside in Berkeley.

Christmas Spirit Dons Many Guises Around The World

NEW YORK (UPI)—Santa Claus doesn't stop in every country.

The childen in Germany, for example, receive their Christmas gifts from Kris Kringle, a young girl wearing a golden crown and carrying a tiny Yule tree.

In Denmark the elf, Julenissen, is the bearer of holiday gifts. Legend holds that throughout the year the elf lives in the attic to keep a sharp eye on the household.

Christmas dinner is never served until the "Nisse" has been treated to a bowl of rice and milk in his attic home.

In Poland gifts come from the stars. In Hungary, the angels are the bearers of presents. In Syria, children wait for the "gentle camel."

The legend is that the youngest camel carrying the Wise Men to Bethlehem lay exhausted from the long journey, and children brought water and wheat to revive him. Ever since, the camel travels over the desert each Christmas with gifts for the young.

The Russian gift-giver is an old woman named Baboushka who misdirected the Wise Men in their journey on the first Christmas. Now, according to the legend, Baboushka travels through the country during the holiday season, knocking at every door with her staff.

She enters each home to hold a candle close by the faces of sleeping children. Then she places a toy under the child's pillow and rushes away on her unending search for the Christ Child.

FOR THE 'YOUNG PERFECTIONIST'

Tennis Club Begins Year With Dance

The Mill Valley Tennis Club will start the new year with new officers and a new clubhouse which they will initiate at a New Year's Eve champagne supper dance.

Social chairmen Mr. and Mrs. John Mann have planned the party, for which Mrs. John Laurie is doing the decor in a Yuletide theme.

Festivities will start at 9 p.m. with dancing and champagne supper will usher in the new year at midnight.

Mrs. Francis Walsh is reservation chairman.

An extraordinary circumstance is that all of the new officers who will be greeting guests have the name of Robert. They are Robert H. Andresen, president; Robert L. Hill, vice president; Robert D. Huber, secretary, and Robert L. Seymour, treasurer.

Jane A. Meyer To Be Bride In February

The engagement of Jane A. Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lloyd Meyer of Greenbrae, to Clarence M. Thompson has been announced by her parents.

Jane, the sister of William L. Meyer of Greenbrae is the granddaughter of Mrs. Cecil Henshaw of Stockton. She was graduated from Redwood High School and is presently attending Bay Cities College in San Francisco.

Clarence is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thompson of Duluth, Minn. He attended Brookston High School in Brookston, Minn.

A February wedding is planned in Reno.

Jeanmarie's Hubby Does The Shopping

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK—Lucky girl, Zizi Jeanmaire. Her husband does most of her clothes shopping.

"He buys, so he can't complain about the cost," said the French dancer, singer and actress. She laughed in appreciation of the fact, for Jeanmaire's clothing bill isn't exactly low budget — she's dressed by the custom couturier, Yves St. Laurent of Paris. St. Laurent also did her leg-baring costumes for her return to Broadway in "Zizi," an extravagant musical, presented by her husband, Roland Petit.

"HE LOVES SHOPPING," said his wife. "If he didn't, I'd buy maybe a couple of furs and a skirt and stop at that. Furs are my great love."

The slim, pixieish-looking Miss Jeanmaire counted up the furs she owns, including the red fox blanket covering the sofa in the couple's New York apartment. Who bought it? Her husband.

Between herself and Broadway star, Barbra Streisand, the fur industry in gratitude should be sending them flowers every night.

Miss Streisand's known to collect furs—coats, suits, hats, et cetera — the way some women collect antique glass or old pillboxes.

Miss Jeanmaire isn't up to matching Miss Streisand's assortment yet, but give her time. "If I had a fortune I'd have a fortune of fur," she said in an interview.

"IT'S WARM, it looks warm, it gives a glow around the face." Her collection includes a street length mink coat with hood and belt, a black mink three-quarter length coat, a sable jacket, a chinchilla evening jacket and a leopard copy of the Navy pea jacket.

About the way she got her husband to doing her shopping: She said in the early days of their marriage they shopped together—"He has lots of taste. I'm afraid to buy anything without him."

Then occasionally her husband would, on his own, order something new for her. On his last shopping spree he lined up an almost complete wardrobe and she didn't even have to go around to St. Laurent's to try things on because the salon has her measurements. Henceforth, she laughed, she will expect the same treatment.

Jeanmaire has a clothes figure — a long-legged look, although she's a tiny five-feet-one and 104 pounds.

DANCING HELPS KEEP it without an extra inch or ounce.

Miss Jeanmaire has been dancing since she was 10.

THE BETTER HALF — By Bob Barnes

"I've got 70 cents left . . . what can you suggest for a high-living, luxury-loving, 45-year-old adolescent?"

AT YULETIDE

A Little Girl's Hairdo Should Match Her Age

At Yuletide, a little girl's hairdo should match her age, says Eric Knudsen, hair expert who deplores "mommy" style hairdos on small fry.

A simple haircut and Christmas adornments — little bells, bows or other symbols of the season is all a little girl needs to "look adorable," he says.

"A most interesting experience for a hairdresser," he says, "is to figure who to please — mother or daughter. Both have set ideas. Little girls like long straight Alice-in-Wonderland styles. Mothers like pony tails or curly hair. Neither Alice or pony styles are good for little girls," he observes.

IN HIS travels around the country as a hair adviser to makers of hair preparations, he has noted tortuous effects of the pony tail.

"The friction of a pony tail or braids between scalp and pillow is particularly bad. Many pony tails cause infection because of the continuous pull and irritation at the back of the head. Braids wouldn't be bad if mother would brush out the hair before bedtime, but I'm afraid some mothers become lazy about it," he says.

THE REASON Eric doesn't favor the long Alice style is that the hair is usually not cut often enough.

"Around 7 a little girl loses her baby hair. But some mothers let a child's hair grow for 3 years before they cut it. Frequent haircuts, even at 3 and 4 years of age, make for better hair later. It will be stronger, too."

One problem is that mothers of curly-haired children, blondes in particular, don't want to cut off the hair because at about seven or eight, the hair changes color. Once you cut it the blondeness and curls are gone.

It is inevitable that the hair will be cut, so cut it as soon as possible, he says. There are new body permanents that may be given so that hair can be shampooed and never set.

ERIC, 26, a Norwegian, has a masters degree in hair dressing. His courses in Norway included related subjects — anatomy and physiology and he applies these theories to his little friends when he plans a hairdo.

"A thin little face should never be made pathetic by wearing long, stringy hair. A short blunt-end hair cut will help make her face look fuller. If her neck is short, her hair should be shorter at the neck. If she has a long neck the hair should be left a bit longer. Children with fat faces look better in very short haircuts with thinned bangs. And I never put curtains on a child's face," he says. "Curtains" are hair draped over both cheeks. Children need to be free of such nuisances, he says.

HE LIKES the old-fashioned Buster Brown hairdo for little girls. But bangs shouldn't be too heavy for delicate faces. He prefers a light fringe of bangs on children with small features.

"Hair should never look so heavy that it appears to overwhelm a little girl," he says.

IN 14TH Century England carols were used during the miracle plays so the audience could have more time to enjoy their favorite carol singers with the songs woven into the performance.

Rowdies Sparked Popularity Of Christmas Carol Singers

The scene: a white sparkling Christmas Eve in 14th Century Chester, England. The rowdies in the audience at the Chester miracle play, however, were not mellowed by the Christmas spirit. Fancying that the manager of the play was not giving enough time to their favorite carol singers, they wrecked the stage, destroyed the properties and costumes of the performers, and beat up the players.

To side-step this danger, the play manager incorporated the between-the-acts carol singing into the play. The singers became actors as well as musicians.

THEY HAD their accompaniments, for most churches had portable organs. One of the performers would carry this organ by a strap thrown over his shoulder, working the bellows of the instrument while playing the melody of the carol with the other.

Over the centuries Christmas and carols have become inseparable. First known English Christmas carols were not written—in Anglo-Saxon—until 12 centuries after the birth of Christ. The first printed collection of Christmas carols was not published until 1521, say researchers.

Francis of Assisi started the modern custom of carol singing in Italy in the 13th Century. It soon spread all over Europe. Today no Christmas service is complete without the singing of Christmas anthems, hymns and carols.

The word carol comes from the Middle English "carolen" — to sing joyously.

THE EARLIEST English carols were round dances with recurrent refrains. This form remained fixed until the end of the middle ages.

The great age of the English Christmas carol was the 15th Century. Carols then were simple, fervent and full of fun.

Then came the Reformation and the growth of Puritanism and carols became gloomier. By 1647 the Puritan Parliament had abolished the observance of Christmas and forbidden any form of celebrations. Carols were out.

PURITANISM brought anti-Christmas feelings to New England with the Mayflower. As early as 1621 Governor Bradford rebuked "certain lusty young men" for celebrating Christmas. In 1659, the General Court of Massachusetts enacted that anybody observing Christmas day should be fined five shillings.

The restoration of English royalty brought about the restoration of the English carol. But it was not until 1681 that Massachusetts repealed its 1659 ordinance.

Many of the early carols were not recovered until 19th Century researchers restored them. Some of them were even rediscovered in the woods of New England and the mountains of the American South.

A BROKEN church organ was responsible for the most popular of the more recent carols—"Silent Night, Holy Night." Christmas 1818 was near and the organ in the little Austrian church was still not mended. So Father Josef Mohr sat down and wrote the carol. He sang it at his Christmas midnight service to music by organist Franz Gruber who played it on a guitar.

Phoebe Claire Clark Becomes Bride Of James Wesley Adams

The First Congregational Church in San Francisco was the setting for the Saturday evening nuptials of Phoebe Claire Clark of San Rafael and James Wesley Adams of Bakersfield. The Rev. Harold T. Janes officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton T. Clark of San Rafael, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white velvet with chapel length train.

Mrs. Paul L. Kelly of San Rafael was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a floor length gown of green velvet, as did the bridesmaid, Dana Bean of Corte Madera, who is a junior at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Ralph Toloski of San Francisco was best man and ushering were Peter Johnson and Paul Goldberg, both of San Francisco.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church, and the couple will spend their wedding trip at Yosemite. They will make their home in Bakersfield in January, after the bride is graduated from San Francisco State College. Phoebe was graduated from Redwood High School.

James is the son of Mrs. Wesley James Adams of San Francisco and the late Mr. Adams. He was graduated from Lincoln High School and San Francisco State College and is a teacher at Arvin High School in Bakersfield. Richard Adams of San Francisco is his brother.

Size Chart Aids Lingerie Giver

NEW YORK (UPI)—Here's help for the females who want to hint to the males that a gift of lingerie is wanted.

One maker of underpinnings has come up with a "top secret" size chart. It's of a size that easily can be slipped into a man's wallet or pocket.

Marked "for gift givers only," it contains space for listing all the vital statistics — height, weight, bust, waist and hip size.

To date, more than 200,000 of the secret charts are being distributed. All sizes, by the way, are concealed on the inside.

Lingerie and foundation sizes and color preferences are stressed on the chart, but there is room also to list dress and other ready-to-wear sizes.

The manufacturer expects most women to fill in the charts for their husbands and subtly tuck them in wallet or pocket.

The back of the card assures the receiver of same that no undue pressure's being exerted. There is this statement:

"A gentle hint about most wanted gifts is all you can expect from a lady."

Freshen Ash Trays

After a party, the easy way to free ash trays of those stale, lingering odors is to wipe them out with a damp paper towel sprinkled with dry baking soda.

Opening lead — ♡ 9

West opened the nine of hearts, and dummy's ten held the first trick. Not a bit frightened by the opening lead, declarer led a trump from dummy and tried a finesse with the queen of spades.

KING WINS

West won with the king of spades and shifted to the five of diamonds. Now the defenders got their two diamond tricks, and West ruffed a heart to defeat the contract.

South's trump finesse was courageous, but it wasn't bridge. He could afford to lose one trump trick, but not two.

South therefore had to play in such a way as to prevent a heart ruff.

TAKE ACE

The correct play is to take the ace of spades at the second trick. If nothing unusual happens on this trick, South gets back to dummy with a club to lead another spade through East.

This play will limit the defenders to one trump trick if the four missing trumps break 2-2 or if East has any three of them. Nothing can ever be donei f West started with K-J-9 of trumps.

As the cards lie, West gets his king of spades on the second round of trumps and can therefore never ruff a heart. The defenders take one trump and two diamonds.

CORRECT PLAY

The correct play would work also if West had the singleton king of spades. Then South could take the ace and queen of spades, giving up one trick to the jack.

If South lost by finessing the queen to the singleton king he would have to give up a second trump trick to the jack.

The play of the ace of spades costs one trick if East happens to hold K-6 of spades, but South still makes his contract. A good player does not worry about overtricks if he can safeguard the contract.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 9
♦ K 8 6 5 3
♣ J 7 6 4 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one notrump.

Your hand is strong enough for a response, but not strong enough for a bid of two diamonds or two clubs.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 22, the 357th day of 1964 with nine to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter; the morning stars are Venus and Mars; the evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1869, poet Edward Robinson was born.

In 1894, Capt. Alfred Dreyfus—an officer of the French general staff—was found guilty of treason.

In 1941, a message from Wake Island said the American stronghold in the Pacific had fallen to Japan.

In 1957, the Scottish freighter "Nerva" sank in the North Sea and 28 seamen went down with her.

A thought for the day—in the New Testament according to St. Matthew, "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

THE MARIN COUNTY
REAL ESTATE BOARD . . in conjunction with the Calif. Real Estate Assn.,
HAS ADOPTED THE FOLLOWING
CODE OF PRACTICES:

1. It is the responsibility of a Realtor to offer equal services to all clients without regard to race, color, religion, or national origin in the sale, purchase, exchange, rental or lease of real property.
   a. A Realtor should stand ready to show property to any member of any racial, creedal or ethnic group.
   b. A Realtor has a legal and ethical responsibility to receive all offers and to communicate them to the property owner. The Realtor being but an agent, the right of decision must be with the property owner.
   c. A Realtor should exert his best efforts to conclude the transaction.
2. Realtors, individually and collectively, in performing their agency functions have no right or responsibility to determine the racial, creedal or ethnic composition of any neighborhood or any part thereof.
   a. A Realtor shall not advise property owners to incorporate in a listing of property an exclusion of sale to any such group.
   b. A Realtor may take a listing which insists upon such exclusions, but only if it is lawfully done at the property owner's instance without any influence whatsoever by the agent.
3. Any attempt by a Realtor to solicit or procure the sale or other disposition in residential areas by conduct intended to implant fears in property owners based upon the actual or anticipated introduction of a minority group into an area shall subject the Realtor to disciplinary action. Any technique that induces panic selling is a violation of ethics and must be strongly condemned.
4. Each Realtor should feel completely free to enter into a Broker-client relationship with persons of any race, creed, or ethnic group.

Apartheid Sparks Walkout In U.N.

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)—African and communist delegates staged a mass-walkout from the General Assembly today when South African foreign minister Hilard Mueller was called to speak.

Many Asian delegates joined the walkout but some Asians stayed in their places, as did western European and Latin American delegates. The demonstration was in protest against South Africa's racial policies. In his speech, Mueller told the assembly South Africa is prepared for any attempt by the U.N. to impose sanctions.

Marin Hospital Board To Act On Insurance

The Marin Hospital District board will meet tonight to approve contracts for carriers of hospital employee group life insurance and retirement plans. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at Marin General Hospital.

The board will also hear a report on the dispute over architect's fees on the Babcock wing of the hospital.

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Max Miller, author of "I Cover The Waterfront" and 26 other books, was reported in satisfactory condition today in Scripps Memorial Hospital. Miller, 65, collapsed last Saturday in his home in nearby La Jolla.

New Warship Honors Korea Combat Hero

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U. S. Navy yesterday put into service its newest anti-submarine warship, the U.S.S. Garcia, named after a 21-year-old Marine private from Puerto Rico who gave his life to save a buddy during the Korean war.

San Francisco Mayor John F. Shelley said at commissioning ceremonies that "whether the battle be in the cold of the Atlantic or in the lonely foxhole in Korea, it is men such as Private Luis Garcia who are important."

Garcia threw himself on an enemy grenade in Korean combat to save the life of another Marine. For the act of heroism he posthumously became the first native-born Puerto Rican to win the Congressional Medal of Honor.

When the new destroyer escort was launched last year, Garcia's sister, Mrs. Daisy Garcia de Alvarez was present.

Speaking aboard the powerfully-armed new warship, Shelley said "If Private Garcia were here today he would be proud of his ship, as we are proud of him.

"May his sacrifice be your inspiration, his pride your pride, his courage your courage," Shelley told the Garcia's 216-man crew.

The ceremony was held at the San Francisco Naval Shipyard where the ship was outfitted. It was built at the Bethlehem shipyard here.

The Navy said the Garcia's "size, armament and performance have surpassed that of all previous destroyer escorts," and is "actually superior to many of our present day destroyers in these respects."

The new ship is commanded by Commander Donald A. Smith. It has a 70-ton underwater dome built separately and attached to the hull, which contains the latest sonar and underwater missile equipment.

Her home port will be Newport, R.I., with the Atlantic fleet, the Navy said.

Property On Tap In Sausalito

Sausalito city councilmen will meet in special session at 8 p.m. today to decide whether the city should attempt to acquire two pieces of property at the north end of the city.

The State Division of Highways has declared the land excess and given the city first chance prior to the land going to public bid. The parcels, totaling about one and one-fourth acres and valued at $30,000, are near Sacramento and Ebbtide avenues and Bolinas Street.

This will be the sole subject on the agenda, said City Mgr. Charles A. Brown.

Recreation Set In Mill Valley

Table tennis, carroms, checkers and (weather permitting) outdoor activities such as basketball, kickball, softball and four square will be available at Old Mill School in Mill Valley under supervised recreation during the Christmas vacation.

The playground is open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. today Dec. 23, 24, 28, 29, 30 and 31. Children aged six to 14 are invited to attend, according to Steve Buffo, director of the Mill Valley Recreation Department.

Cal Appraisal Due

State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael will give his appraisal of the "Free Speech Movement" controversy at University of California at a luncheon meeting of the Commonwealth Club at 12:10 p.m. tomorrow in the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

JAPANESE ACTORS VISIT FESTIVAL THEATER

Mr. and Mrs. Noboru Nakaya, members of the Kumo repertory company of Japan are visiting the Festival Theater in San Anselmo during a two-month tour of theater groups in this country. TELEVISION REVIEW

Series On FDR To Start Jan. 8

By RICK du BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A weekly, half-hour Friday night documentary series about the presidential years of Franklin Delano Roosevelt will begin on ABC-TV Jan. 8.

Entitled "FDR," it will be the third series either about or inspired by Democratic presidents to have a national television debut this season.

"Profiles in Courage," based on the book by President John F. Kennedy, is a one-hour dramatic entry on NBC-TV each Sunday.

A half-hour series about the White House years of Harry Truman, narrated by the former chief executive, is being seen on a syndicated basis around the country, generating a good deal of controversy.

The Roosevelt series will have Arthur Kennedy as narrator, with Charlton Heston speaking the words of the four-time president. The late Eleanor Roosevelt served as consultant for the program.

The series had been tentatively scheduled to appear on ABC-TV last season, but any such plans were withdrawn before the 1963-64 semester began, probably in considerable measure because of the election year that was ahead.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Claire Bloom reads poetry on CBS-TV's "Camera Three" Sunday . . . Les Crane, star of ABC-TV's new late-night program, is host of the network's New Year's Day coverage of the Mummers Parade in Philadelphia . . . CBS-TV's new "Many Happy Returns" series, with John McGiver, is reported washed up after its 26 episodes run out . . . Merry Christmas: NBC-TV's Alfred Hitchcock hour offers Margaret Leighton Jan. 11 as a spinster who goes insane when she can't cope with the strains of bringing up an orphan.

Tomorrow night's "ABC Scope" tells of a full-time drifter who becomes a part-time Santa for Christmas . . . all three networks aired color programs this past Sunday: "An Evening With Fred Astaire" on CBS-TV . . . Dick Van Dyke currently seems determined that next season will be the last for his weekly CBS-TV series; the movies beckon, and he is a hot motion picture item at the moment.

Steve Lawrence's stage command in his recent NBC-TV special should surprise no one who remembers how strongly he registered a while back as guest host of the "Tonight" program . . . a solid, intelligent performer.

Classroom Proposals Due Board

A contract and specifications for leasing of portable classrooms in the Fairfax School district will come before the district trustees at a special meeting at 8:30 p.m. today.

Also on tonight's agenda is a resolution declaring the board's intention to sell $417,000 worth of bonds, which would bring the district up to the legal limit of bonded indebtedness.

Trustees will review the contract of Supt. Homer Sisk and will be asked to approve a new bond redemption schedule.

The oath of office will be administered to new trustee George Stone, appointed to fill out the term of Jay M. Hutchinson, who resigned last month.

Joins South Vietnam Support Command

Army Sp. 4 Steven A. Loomis, 21, of 225 Nova Albion Terrace, San Rafael, has been assigned to the U. S. Army Support Command in South Vietnam as a helicopter crew chief.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Loomis, 620 Wakerobin Lane, he is a 1961 graduate of San Rafael High School and attended the College of Marin in Kentfield.

Yule Decor Judging Today

Judging for the grand prize in the Marin Visitors Bureau Christmas decoration contest will be held from 6:30 to 10 p.m. today.

A jury headed by Donald Ronshimer, president of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce, will choose best overall decoration from the winners in 12 districts throughout the county.

As in the past, the Independent-Journal will award a $100 prize to the winner.

Big Tree Cut

AGEN, France (UPI)—Someone cut himself a mighty Christmas tree last night. A 26-foot fir in the Jayen public gardens in the city center disappeared.

Can't Fish But You See The Salmon

Silver salmon are jumping the rapids on Paper Mill Creek heading for small, shallow pools in Samuel P. Taylor Park where they will spawn and die.

"Large bodies of water in the park are muddy because of the storm but you can see the fish in the smaller pools," Neil Powers, park supervisor, said today.

"The fish are coming from the Pacific Ocean, into Tomales Bay and up the creek to the sheltered pool where they will lay their eggs and then die natural deaths," he said.

"The acrobatics above the rapids are really something to see. But visitors should not bring their fishing poles and tackle because the salmon fishing season has ended," he warned.

Den Gives Trees

The Mill Valley Rest Home at 297 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, has received a live Christmas tree, adorned with ornaments, from Strawberry Cub Scout Pack 33. The scouts made the ornaments themselves, and Den 6 also presented miniature Christmas trees for the individual rooms, according to Mrs. Dean Lem, den mother of Den six.

Few Know Of Hearst's Retreat In Mountains

McCLOUD (AP)—Nestling like a fairyland along the cascading McCloud River of forested Northern California, one of William Randolph Hearst's lesser known properties lies in storybook splendor.

The 20,000-acre estate, now operated as Wyntoon Tree Farm, was the summer home of the fabled journalist.

Announcement by Hearst Corp. of development plans for the 80,000 acre Hearst ranch property at San Simeon has reminded residents of Northern California of this beautiful, lesser-known Hearst property near the town of McCloud.

The fabulous Hearst Castle is on the San Simeon property.

Wyntoon is much more remote.

Hidden from the inquisitive traveler, the estate is reached by a roundabout series of unmarked graveled roads. A locked gate more than a mile from the buildings stops the few who manage to get that far. "No trespassing" signs abound.

Of the six buildings on the grounds, three were built by Hearst in Bavarian architecture overhanging the primitive river. They face onto a circular drive surrounding a large lawn.

Hearst's residence was the Brown Bear House, its exterior painted to tell the story of Snow White and Rose Red.

The Cinderalla House — complete with teletypes — was Hearst's office. The third building was the Angel or Fairy House, still under construction when Hearst died in 1951. Among other buildings at the site is a four-story movie theater.

Mrs. Hearst was reported to have fallen in love with the area near the turn of the century and finally talked her lawyer into giving her a life estate to a site on the river.

Beeper Phone Calls Due Christmas Eve

Radio station KTIM-FM's "Wanderer," Don Bennett, will include Christmas Eve listeners in beeper phone calls to police and fire stations, San Quentin and to the homes of Marin County and city officials from 7 to 10 p.m., Thursday.

A program of Christmas carols and music will precede the program, starting at 4:45 p.m. News and emergency announcements will be broadcast as they occur.

Rest Station Is Planned

The Novato Moose Lodge will operate a rest station for weary holiday travelers two miles north of Novato on Highway 101 starting at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

The lodge hopes the rest stop will help prevent accidents in Marin County during the holiday weekend. The station will supply free donuts and coffee to travelers from 6 p.m. tomorrow 'round the clock to 11 p.m. Sunday.

The rest stop will be located in an Enco service station on the southbound side of the highway.
